RE in ESDGC

RE is a huge part of Global Citizenship, teaching children about the importance of understanding other cultures around the world and in their own community. This will set them up with the knowledge they'll need if they ever decide to travel, or work abroad.

RE also opens the door to multiple activities in lessons that reach across the curriculum.

RE is about teaching children about the different cultures and religions around the world.

RE in Schools

It gives children a broader perspective of the world and an understanding of the different types of people in their area. This can allow them to work with different kinds of people and have an appreciation for them and their beliefs.

The role of RE in primary is

To teach young children that people have different beliefs and ideologies. Without this teaching they could grow up not understanding this which can lead to discrimination against other religions.

Role of RE in primary schools

Making people aware of people from different cultures and backgrounds and helping them gain an understanding about how those people live their lives differently.

I believe the role of RE in primary schools is to give children a wide range of knowledge of many religions without forcing any specific religion onto them. I feel like teaching RE correctly will prevent any discrimination and will let children control their lives and religion, whether they choose to be religious or not.

To educate the children on the different cultures in the world, for them not to be discriminative

To educate pupils on a wide range of religions and to

R.E in a primary school is educating the young minds about different religions, cultures and beliefs. Therefore, trying to promote a diverse environment within the school.
