

DIGITAL SAFETY

Don't get caught in the net

Digital security is to protect your phones, tablets, computers and other devices that are connected to the internet against intruders trying to hack into them and gain access to personal information.

Be secure online by following these steps:

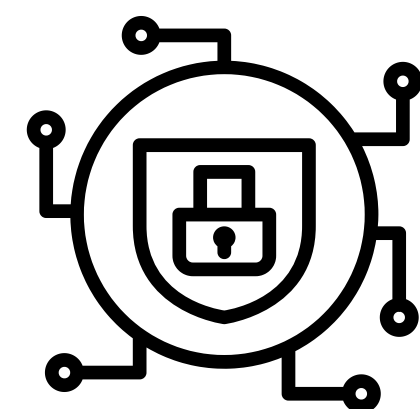

Keep your privacy settings on at all times

Update the latest version of your software

Use secure internet connection and avoid using personal information on public computers

Always backup your data and never open unwanted files

