Basically, login will not function, and the management of data is seriously problematic in that you cannot manage the data as there are a number of errors presents. You should have focused on one elements at a time (as discussed in lectures and ensure you have no errors before moving onto another problem. There is definite argument that you started this assignment seriously too late and you should have put in an appropriate amount of effort - At Level 5 standard, you must be more pro-active	60	12
