Student name:		Student ID number:
Programme:	BA (Hons) Leadership and Management Skills for the Workplace
Module:	Strategic Management for Business
Module code:	LCLM 6001	Contribution to Overall Module Assessment (%):	70%
Lecturer:	Yohan Mendis Faizu Edu	Internal Verifier:	Md Kalam Samuel Ofori
Assignment Title:	Individual Report	Word count (or equivalent):	3,000 +/-10% words
Submission deadline:	Friday [Week 10]-04/12/2026 by 2 PM	Return date of provisional marks & written feedback:	[20 Working Days from Submission] 04/01/2027
Submission method:	All written assessments, where practical and possible, must be submitted via Turnitin unless otherwise instructed by the Lecturer. (Please DO NOT put this assessment specification into Turnitin or it will match many similarities with other students' submissions.) Alternative submission method (if applicable): Late submission of the assessment will result in a late penalty mark: Work which is submitted up to 1 week late will be capped at 40% for the first attempt and will be awarded a mark of 0% for re-assessment. Late submission penalties may be lifted only if there is an approved extenuating circumstances claim. Work submitted more than 1 week late will be considered as a non-submission and will not be marked. The work may be considered as a submission for reassessment if offered by an Examining Board or if there is an approved extenuating circumstances claim.
Academic honesty / referencing:	Academic honesty is required. In the main body of your submission you must give credit to authors on whose research and ideas your work is based. Append to your submission a reference list that indicates the books, articles, etc. that you have used, cited or quoted in order to complete this assessment.
Work over the word limit:	To support fairness and good academic writing, each assessment has a set word limit. It's important that you stay within this limit. The word limit helps ensure: - You write clearly and concisely. - All students complete the assessment on an equal basis.

If You Go Over the Word Limit

If your work exceeds the word limit, the following penalties will normally apply. These deductions cannot take your mark below the pass mark for the module.

Amount Over Limit	Penalty Applied
Up to 10% over	No penalty
10%–25% over	5 mark deduction or reduction to the capped mark (whichever is the smaller penalty)
26%–50% over	10 mark deduction or reduction to the capped mark (whichever is the smaller penalty)
Over 50%	Mark capped at the pass mark

Examples (Undergraduate):

- A mark of 44% would be reduced to the pass mark of 40% if the work is 10–25% over.
- A mark of 49% would be reduced by 5 marks to 44%.
- A mark of 47% at 25–50% over would be reduced to 40%.
- A mark of 55% at 25–50% over would be reduced by 10 marks to 45%.

If You Are Under the Word Limit

If your work is significantly under the word limit, you may lose marks because your submission may not contain enough detail to meet the learning outcomes.

Feedback

If a word-limit penalty is applied, this will be stated clearly in your feedback, along with the reason.

Module Learning Outcomes

TASK

Assessment Scenario: Greggs plc – Strategic Direction in a Changing UK Food-to- Go Market

Background

Greggs plc is one of the UK's most recognisable and accessible food retailers, operating as a food-to-go bakery chain with a strong presence across high streets, transport hubs, retail parks and community locations. Founded in 1939 in Newcastle upon Tyne, the business has evolved from a single bakery into a national brand with over 2,700 shops and more than 33,000 employees across the United Kingdom (Greggs plc, 2026c; Gregg's plc, 2026a).

Historically positioned as a traditional bakery, Greggs has strategically transformed itself into a modern, convenience-led food retailer, focusing on quick, affordable meals such as sausage rolls, sandwiches, hot snacks, and drinks. This repositioning emerged after recognising that a significant proportion of its revenue came from the "food-on-the-go" segment, rather than traditional bakery retailing (Greggs plc, 2026c).

Greggs has built a strong reputation based on its ability to offer good-quality, freshly prepared food at affordable prices, appealing particularly to students, working individuals, and cost-conscious consumers during the UK's ongoing cost-of-living pressures (Greggs plc, 2026a).

Products and Services

Greggs offers a wide range of products designed around convenience, affordability, and quick consumption, creating a coherent and responsive product offering that reflects both convenience and evolving consumer expectations. Its menu brings together hot savoury items such as sausage rolls, bakes and pizza slices with sandwiches, breakfast options, sweet bakery goods and a wide selection of hot and cold drinks. Over time, Greggs has adapted this offer to reflect shifts in demand, particularly through the introduction of healthier and plant-based products, alongside investment in digital channels such as delivery platforms (including Just Eat and Uber Eats) and its own mobile click-and-collect service. Collectively, this evolution highlights how the firm has developed a flexible and strategically aligned product portfolio that continues to meet the needs of a broad customer base while responding to changing consumption patterns (GlobalData, 2025; Greggs plc, 2026b).

Task Description:

Upon successful completion of your degree, you have been recruited by Greggs as a Junior Strategic Analyst. As your first task your manager has requested you to prepare a report suggesting growth strategies for the organisation.

Your Report should comprise the following (Structure):

1. Executive Summary (Approximately 250 words)

Provide a concise overview of your report, summarising the key strategic issues facing Greggs plc and outlining your main recommendations for its future growth and development.

2. Introduction to Greggs plc (Approximately 200 words)

What is the purpose of the report and the structure of it? You may also highlight any useful background information in relation to Greggs plc within the UK food-to-go market. Consider how its business model and target customers (e.g. students, commuters) relate to its vision, mission and wider strategic intent, particularly in terms of affordability, accessibility and growth.

3. Evaluation of the Current Market Situation (Approximately 700 words)

Using appropriate analytical frameworks such as SWOT, PESTEL and Porter's Five Forces, conduct a thorough analysis of Greggs' internal and external environment. Your analysis should be supported by real-world data from credible sources such as annual reports, industry publications and news articles. You should aim to demonstrate how external pressures (e.g., inflation, competition, changing consumer behaviour) and internal capabilities influence Greggs' strategic position.

4. Strategic Growth Options and Proposed Strategy (Approximately 600 words)

Evaluate potential strategic growth options available to Greggs. You may use frameworks such as the Ansoff Matrix or Porter's Generic Strategies to structure your discussion. Based on your analysis, propose a clear and justified strategy for the organisation. Your proposed strategy should align with Greggs' value-for-money positioning and reflect the realities of its operating environment.

5. Strategy Evaluation (Approximately 450 words)

Evaluate the feasibility of your proposed strategy using appropriate models such as the Suitability, Feasibility and Acceptability (SFA) framework. Where necessary, you may make realistic and clearly stated assumptions to support your analysis, particularly where detailed company information is not publicly available.

6. Stakeholder Analysis (Approximately 300 words)

Identify and analyse the key stakeholders relevant to Greggs and evaluate how your proposed strategy may impact them. Apply concepts such as Stakeholder Theory and Mendelow's Matrix to assess stakeholder power and interest. You should also outline a brief stakeholder engagement approach.

7. Implementation and Monitoring (Approximately 350 words)

Develop a practical implementation plan for your proposed strategy. This should include clear objectives, key actions, and measurable Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) that Greggs could use to monitor progress. Consider realistic constraints such as cost, operations and organisational capacity.

8. Conclusion (Approximately 150 words)

Summarise the key insights from your analysis and reinforce the importance of your recommended strategy for Greggs' long-term success.

General Submission Guidance

1. All of your submissions must include a title page that clearly states your name, your student number, the module code and title, your lecturer's name, and your assignment title.
2. All of your submissions should be typed in Arial font, size 11.
3. All of your submissions should be typed with 1.5 line spacing.
4. All of your submissions should have an appropriate structure, include page numbers, and have a reference list.

GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMPLETION OF TASKS

NOTE: The guidance offered below is linked to the five generic assessment criteria overleaf.

1. Engagement with Literature Skills

Your work must be informed and supported by scholarly material that is relevant to and focused on the task(s) set; you should make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources, where appropriate (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline). You should provide evidence that you have accessed a wide range of sources, which may be academic, governmental and industrial; these sources may include academic journal articles, textbooks, current news articles, organisational documents, and websites. You should consider the credibility of your sources; academic journals are normally highly credible sources while websites require careful consideration/selection and should be used sparingly. Any sources you use should be current and up-to-date, mostly published within the last five years or so, though seminal/important works in the field may be older. You must provide evidence of your research/own reading throughout your work, using a suitable referencing system, including in-text citations in the main body of your work and a reference list at the end of your work.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Use credible, relevant, and current sources

Support your analysis with at least 12 high-quality academic and industry sources, such as Greggs plc reports, industry publications, and research on retail strategy, consumer behaviour, and the UK food-to-go market.

- Demonstrate breadth and critical engagement

Draw on a range of academic, industry, and financial sources to evaluate Greggs' strategic position, considering factors such as cost pressures, competition, consumer trends, and expansion. Focus on engaging with the evidence, not just describing it.

- Integrate literature purposefully

Combine insights from different sources to strengthen your analysis. Highlight similarities, differences, and implications to develop clear, well-supported recommendations for Greggs' strategy.

2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills

At level 6, you should be able to demonstrate coherent and detailed knowledge and a systematic understanding of the subject area, at least some of which is informed by the latest research and/or advanced scholarship within the discipline. You should be aware of the uncertainty, ambiguity and limits of knowledge. Your work must demonstrate the growing extent of your knowledge and systematic understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the subject area. Knowledge relates to the facts, information and skills you have acquired through your learning. You demonstrate your understanding by interpreting the meaning of the facts and information (knowledge). This means that you need to select and include in your work the concepts, techniques, models, theories, etc. appropriate to the task(s) set. You should be able to explain the theories, concepts, etc. meaningfully to show your understanding. Your mark/grade will also depend upon the extent to which you demonstrate your knowledge and understanding; ideally each should be complete and detailed, with comprehensive coverage.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Demonstrate strong knowledge and understanding

Show clear and detailed knowledge of strategic management concepts, applied specifically to Greggs and the UK food-to-go market.

- Go beyond description

Show understanding by interpreting information, not just presenting it. Explain what the evidence means for Greggs' strategy, challenges, and future direction.

- Provide critical and well-rounded insight

Use up-to-date sources and acknowledge any limitations or uncertainties, ensuring your discussion is detailed, balanced, and supports informed conclusions.

3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

You should be able to: critically evaluate evidence, arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data some of which are at the forefront of a discipline (and that may be incomplete) to devise and sustain arguments, to make judgements and/or solve problems; describe and comment upon particular aspects of current research, or equivalent advanced scholarship, in the discipline Your work must contain evidence of logical, analytical thinking, evaluation and synthesis. For example, to examine and break information down into parts, make inferences, compile, compare and contrast information. This means not just describing what! But also justifying: Why? How? When? Who? Where? At what cost? At all times, you must provide justification for your arguments and judgements. Evidence that you have reflected upon the ideas of others within the subject area is crucial to you providing a reasoned and informed debate within your work. Furthermore, you should provide evidence that you are able to make sound judgements and convincing arguments using data and concepts. Sound, valid conclusions are necessary and must be derived from the content of your work. Where relevant, alternative solutions and recommendations may be proposed.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Apply critical thinking and analysis

Use frameworks (such as PESTEL, Porter's 5 forces, Ansoff's etc) to break down Greggs' strategic position. Support your analysis with relevant data (e.g. costs, competition, consumer trends) and explain what each point means for the business, rather than simply listing factors.

- Justify your arguments clearly

Support all claims with appropriate evidence and theory. Explain why and how key factors (e.g. rising costs or competition) impact Greggs' strategy, ensuring your arguments are logical and clearly evidenced.

- Build reasoned conclusions and recommendations

Ensure your conclusions follow directly from your analysis. Link insights (e.g. from PESTEL, Ansoff's or any other model you have used) to your recommendations, justify your chosen strategy, and consider alternative options where appropriate.

4. Practical Skills

At level 6, you should be able to apply the methods and techniques that you have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply your knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects. You will deploy accurately established techniques of analysis and enquiry relevant to the discipline, and apply them in complex and unpredictable contexts, to devise and sustain arguments and/or to solve problems. You should be able to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions. You should be able to demonstrate how the subject-related concepts and ideas relate to real world situations and/or a particular context. How do they work in practice? You will deploy models, methods, techniques, and/or theories, in that context or circumstances, to assess current situations, perhaps to formulate plans or solutions to solve problems, or to create artefacts, some of which may be innovative and creative. This is likely to involve, for instance, the use of real world artefacts, examples and cases, the application of a model within an organisation and/or benchmarking one theory or organisation against others based on stated criteria. You should show awareness of the limitations of concepts and theories when applied in particular contexts.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Apply theory in practice

Use relevant models and techniques (e.g. PESTEL, Porter's Five Forces) to analyse Greggs' real-world situation. Show how these tools help assess its current position and inform practical strategic decisions.

- Develop solutions using analysis

Use your analysis to identify problems and propose realistic solutions for Greggs. Ask relevant questions, explore different options where appropriate, and support your recommendations with evidence and theory.

- Demonstrate practical understanding and awareness of limitations

Show how strategic concepts work in practice by using real examples from Greggs or the wider Industry. Where relevant, recognise the limitations of the models you use and explain how this affects your conclusions.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for graduate-level employment requiring the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility and decision-making in complex and unpredictable circumstances. This includes demonstrating: the learning ability for professional development to advance existing skills and acquire new competences of a professional nature that will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations; that you can initiate and complete tasks and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively; that you can use appropriate media to effectively communicate information, arguments and analysis in a variety of forms to specialist and non-specialist audiences; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Demonstrate professional communication and structure

Present your work clearly and professionally, using a logical structure and coherent writing style. Ensure your arguments and analysis of Greggs are easy to follow and appropriately organised.

- Show initiative and independent thinking

Take responsibility for your analysis by selecting relevant information, making informed judgements, and developing your own recommendations for Greggs, rather than relying solely on description.

- Apply transferable skills effectively

Communicate your ideas clearly to both specialist and non-specialist audiences, using appropriate academic language. Show your ability to complete the task independently, using evidence, analysis, and structured reasoning throughout.
