

What challenges does 'police culture' pose for you as leaders?

Identifying 'bad apples' Empowering people to speak out Building teams and a positive culture

Really difficult to bring about change or change culture

Needing to dispel negativity whilst still maintaining a productive team ethos

It is collectively strong and trying to turn it around is like trying to turn the tide

Difficult to break a negative culture

Change the narrative, focus on the positives, what legacy do I want to leave?
Representation and maintain legitimacy

Catering support for the minority cultures
