POLITICAL

The NHS is also had negative impact by Brexit, being a public institution, a separation from European Union had deep impact on its functional capacity.

Economic

Few years back NHS faced financial crisis and the faced many problems. several economic regulation put pressure on NHS to reduce staff salaries. As a result, a large number NHS employee left or they replaced with workers with lower skill levels.

Social

The healthcare system and its activities are now well understood by patients. As a result patient expect the NHS to provide the best possible treatment. And number of patients are growing as the cancer diabetic are growing faster.

Technology

The NHS power to offer services of a better quality has been impacted by the basic technical advancements in healthcare. In all hospitals across the UK, modern equipment such as advanced scanning systems and other devices, has become standard. Now the NHS can give quality and speedy healthcare to all patients.

Legal

Patients who are dissatisfied with the quality of treatment provided by NHS are now filling lawsuits to solve their issues.

Environment

For better environment its good idea to reduce harmful waste. All medical organisation are under pressure. The NHS has taken action to ensure that the disposal of medical waste has the least possible negative effects.
