

MAPS

What is a map?

Our centre will use an approach called MAPS. We felt this was the most appropriate method in supporting you as an individual.

Come tell us your story,
we're ready to listen!

Map?

Your history

Your dreams?

Your nightmares?

Who are you?

Strengths & talents

What do you need?

Action plan

Not Confident? Someone can speak on your behalf
Tell us your dreams and the nightmares that hold you back
Let's identify your strengths and talents
Let's develop a plan TOGETHER

The Children and Families Act 2014

- Ensures precise principles are in place in order to support and involve children and young people in all aspects of educational needs.
- Mechanisms are set out in order to facilitate parents/carers to enable the development of children and young people in order that their best possible outcomes are met.

Refugee
support

(punjx.uk, 2019)

What do we do?

We want to provide refugees with the best outcomes.

We want to get children and young people into primary and secondary education.

It doesn't stop there!

Our centre offers support for families

We have daily activities carried out to integrate you into the community

We have computers available to help you carry out homework

There are members of staff to help out individuals and families with any needs they have

We have community sports played teaching families on sports played in schools

Computer courses for parents

Soft play to keep little ones entertained

Being a refugee can be unimaginable for some but for 25.4 million around the world unfortunately this is a reality

What is pcsp?

A person-centred plan helps everyone involved with an individual see the whole person, understand the individual's desires and to enable new ways forward regarding the future of the individual.

(pacer.org, 2019)

Pcp is all about making a difference to your life, to focus on your needs and plan for the future with the appropriate help.

We care about you as an individual and want to ensure your needs and desires are met in the best possible way.

(sandler.com, 2019)

We want you to be a part of our community

We want to understand your interests and dreams and develop ways to make them a reality.

YOU ARE THE CENTRE OF THIS PROGRAMME!

A tool of empowerment is education, this is extremely important for young people.
