

Pennard Castle

Written and Presented By Nat Kane

Pennard castle ruins, British Listed Buildings

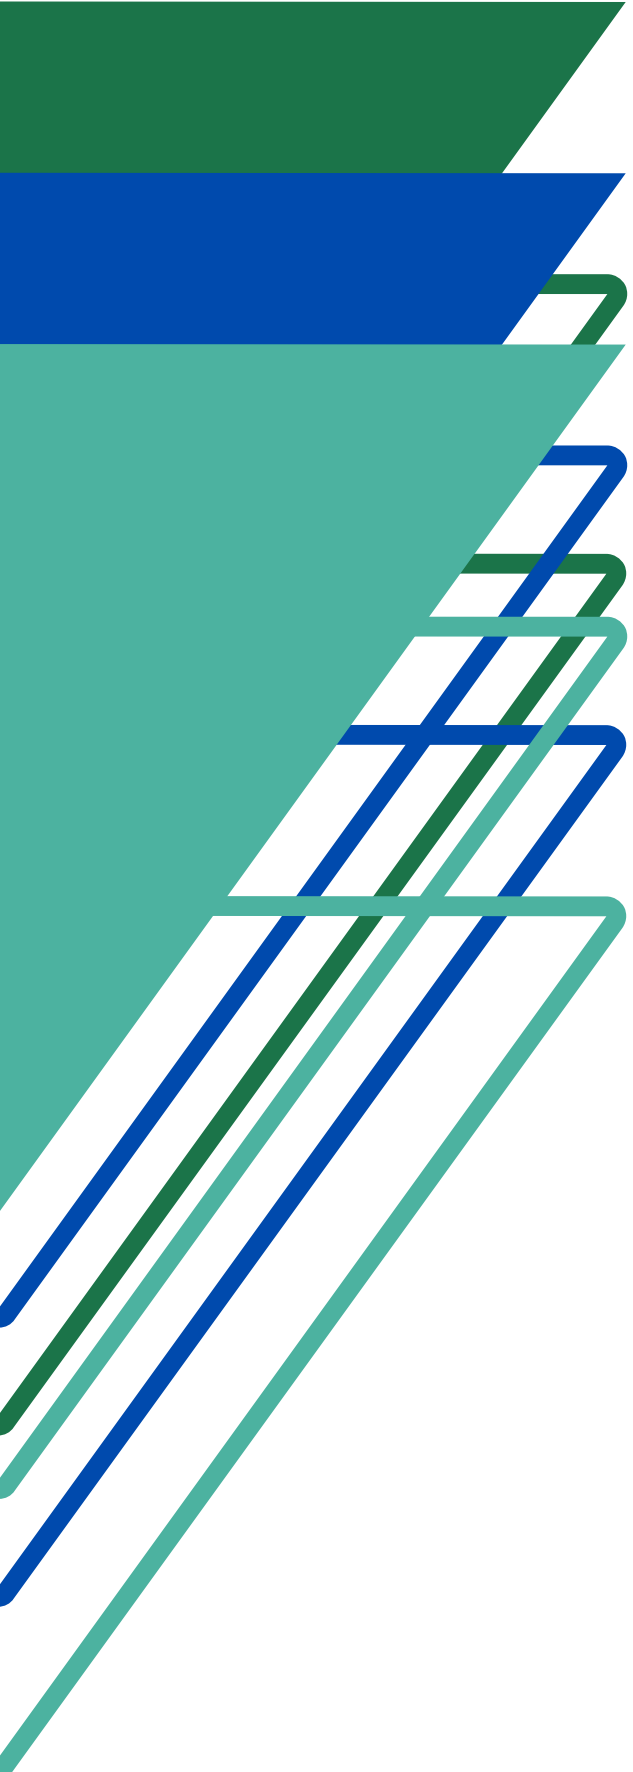

Introduction

Introduction

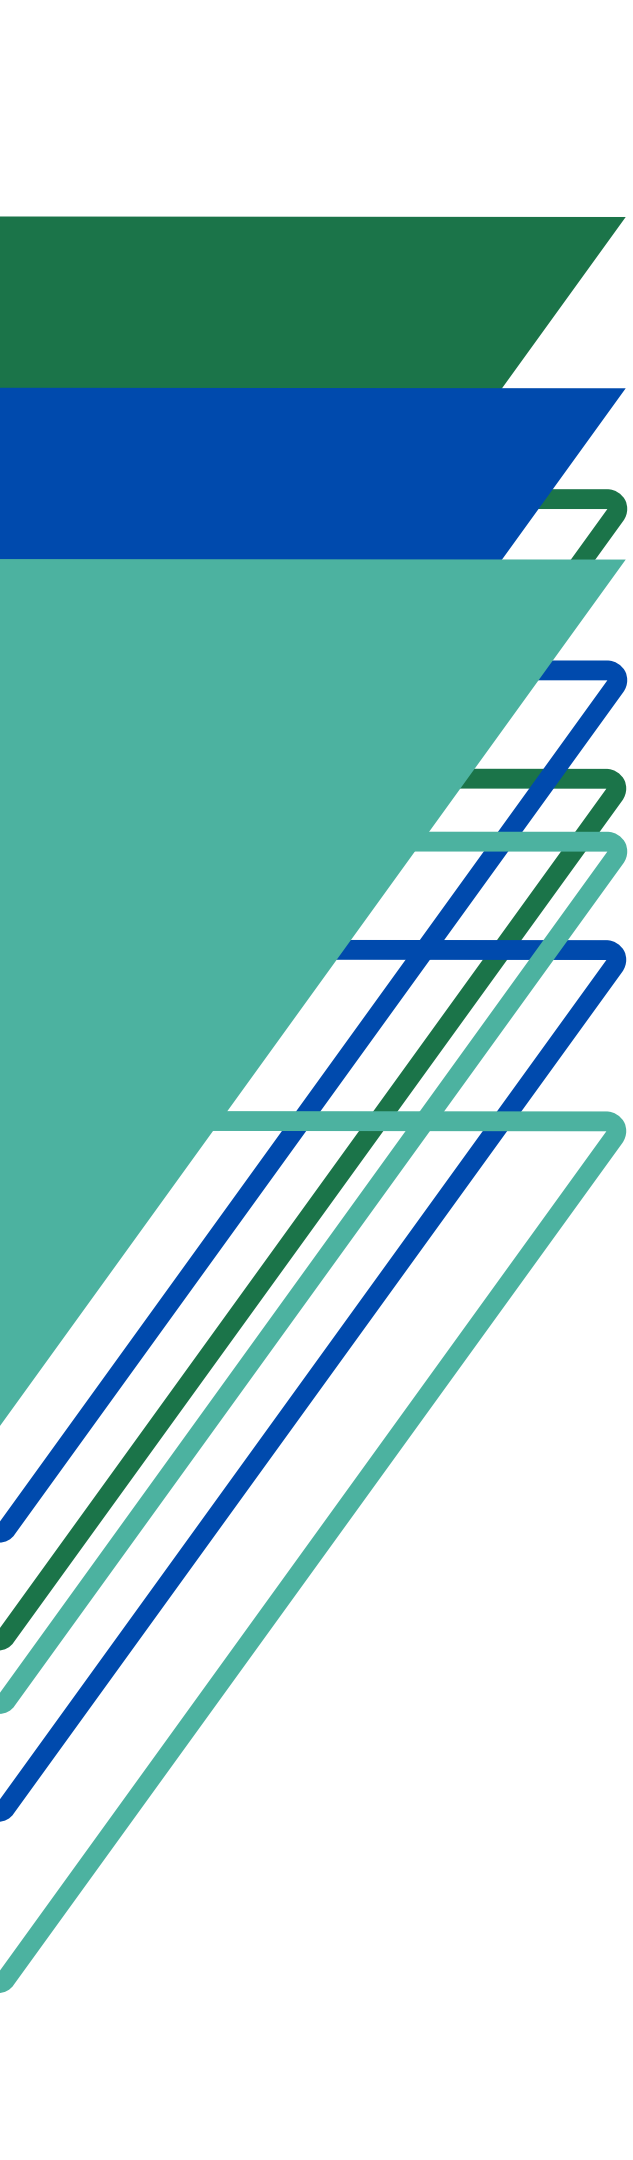

Pennard castle was built in the early 12th century, firstly as a wooden ringwork structure

Introduction

Pennard castle was built in the early 12th century, firstly as a wooden ringwork structure

Then the de Braose family reconstructed it as a stone ringwork structure approximately in the 13th and 14th centuries

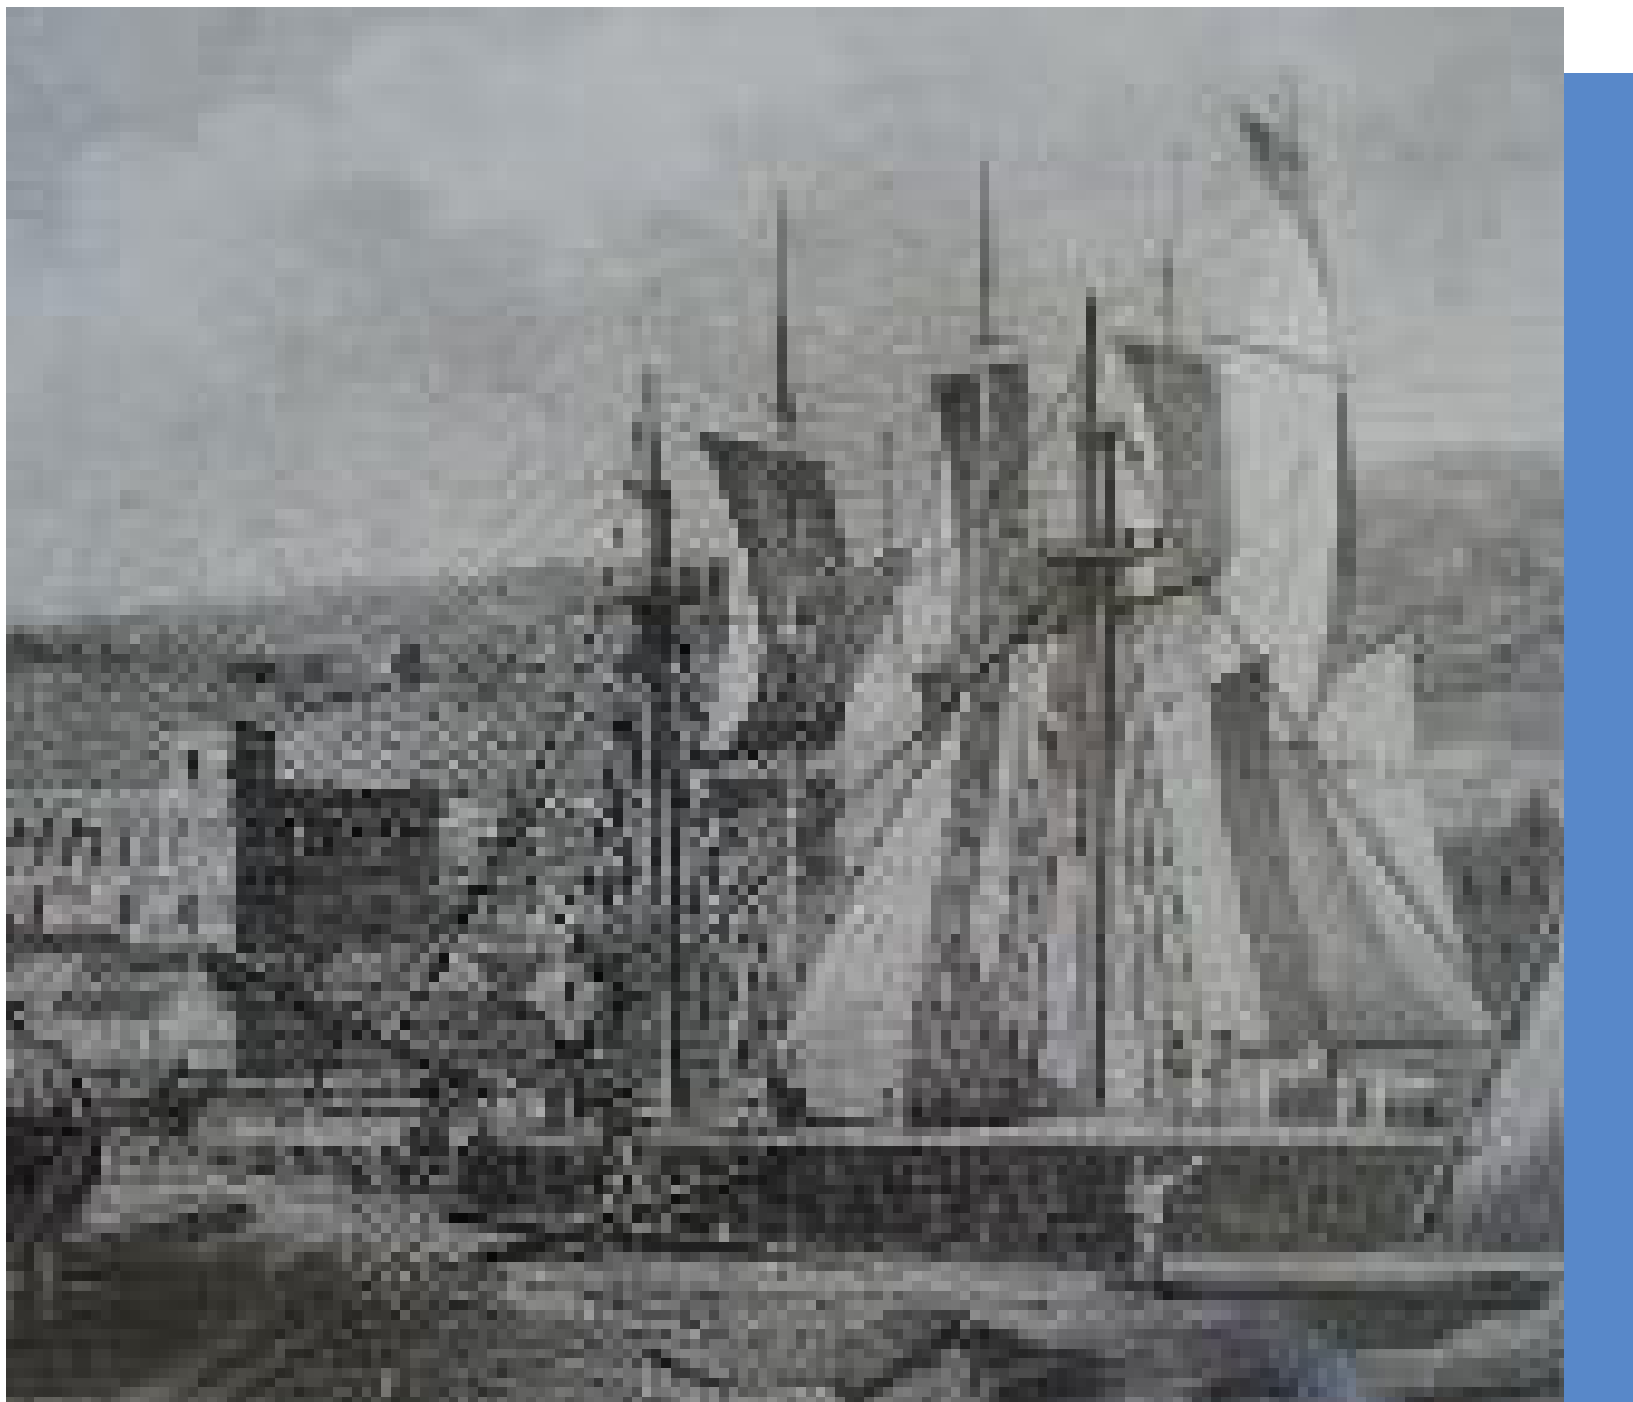

Introduction

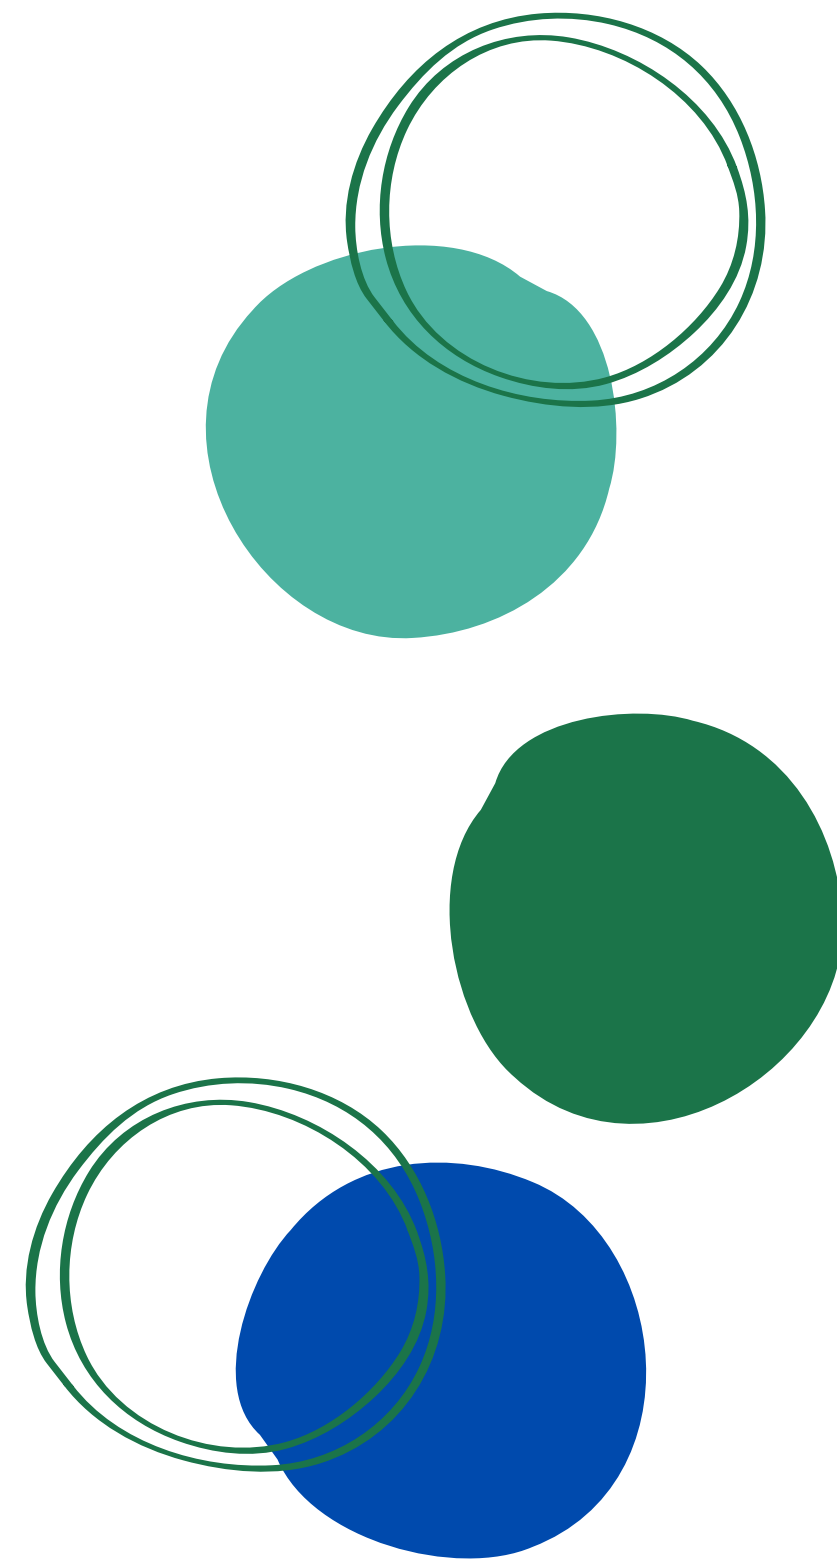

Pennard castle was built in the early 12th century, firstly as a wooden ringwork structure

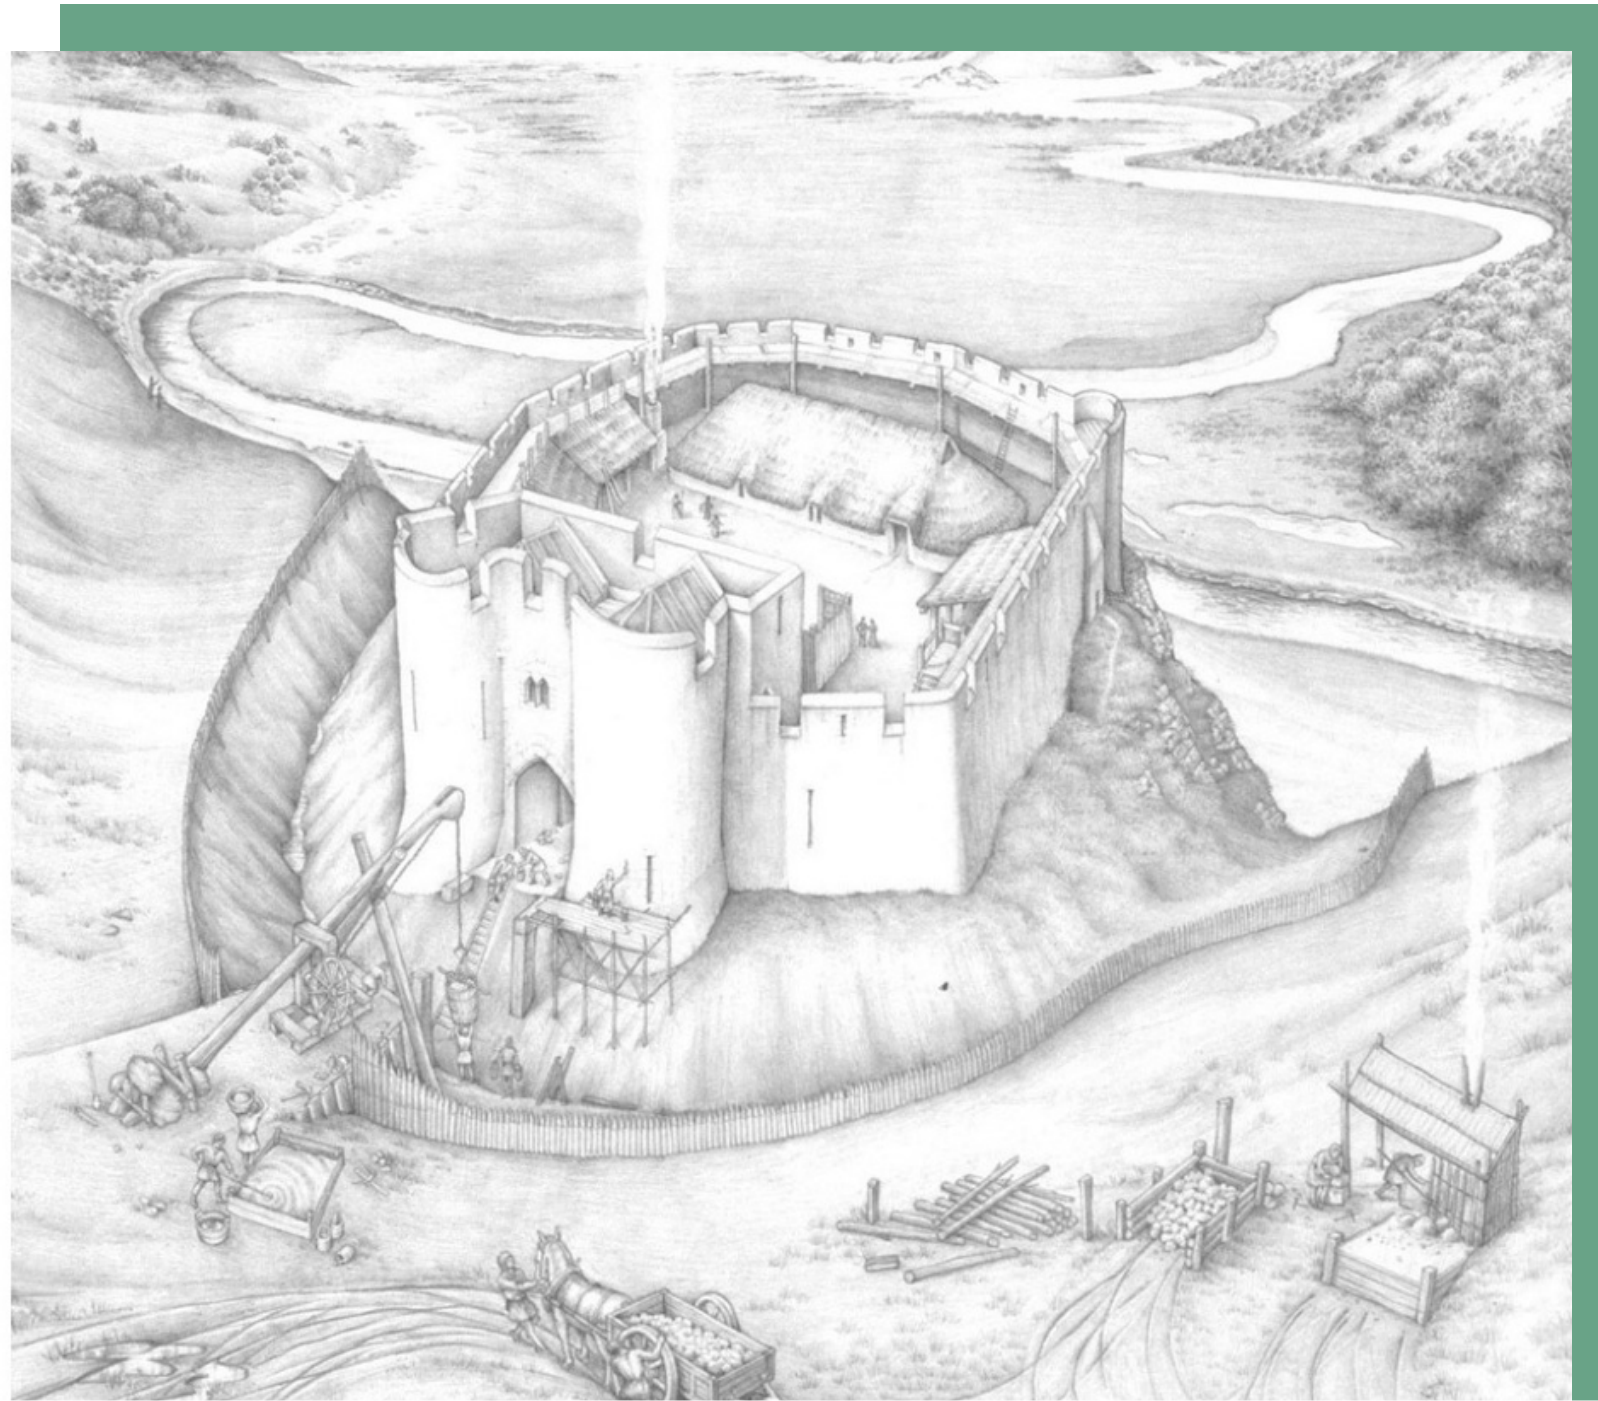

Then the de Braose family reconstructed it as a stone ringwork structure approximately in the 13th and 14th centuries

Pennard Castle was an important and strategic structure within the Gwyr landscape and shoreline

A supply boat bringing supplies, Le Breos Family history, Swansea City And County Of Swansea Council.

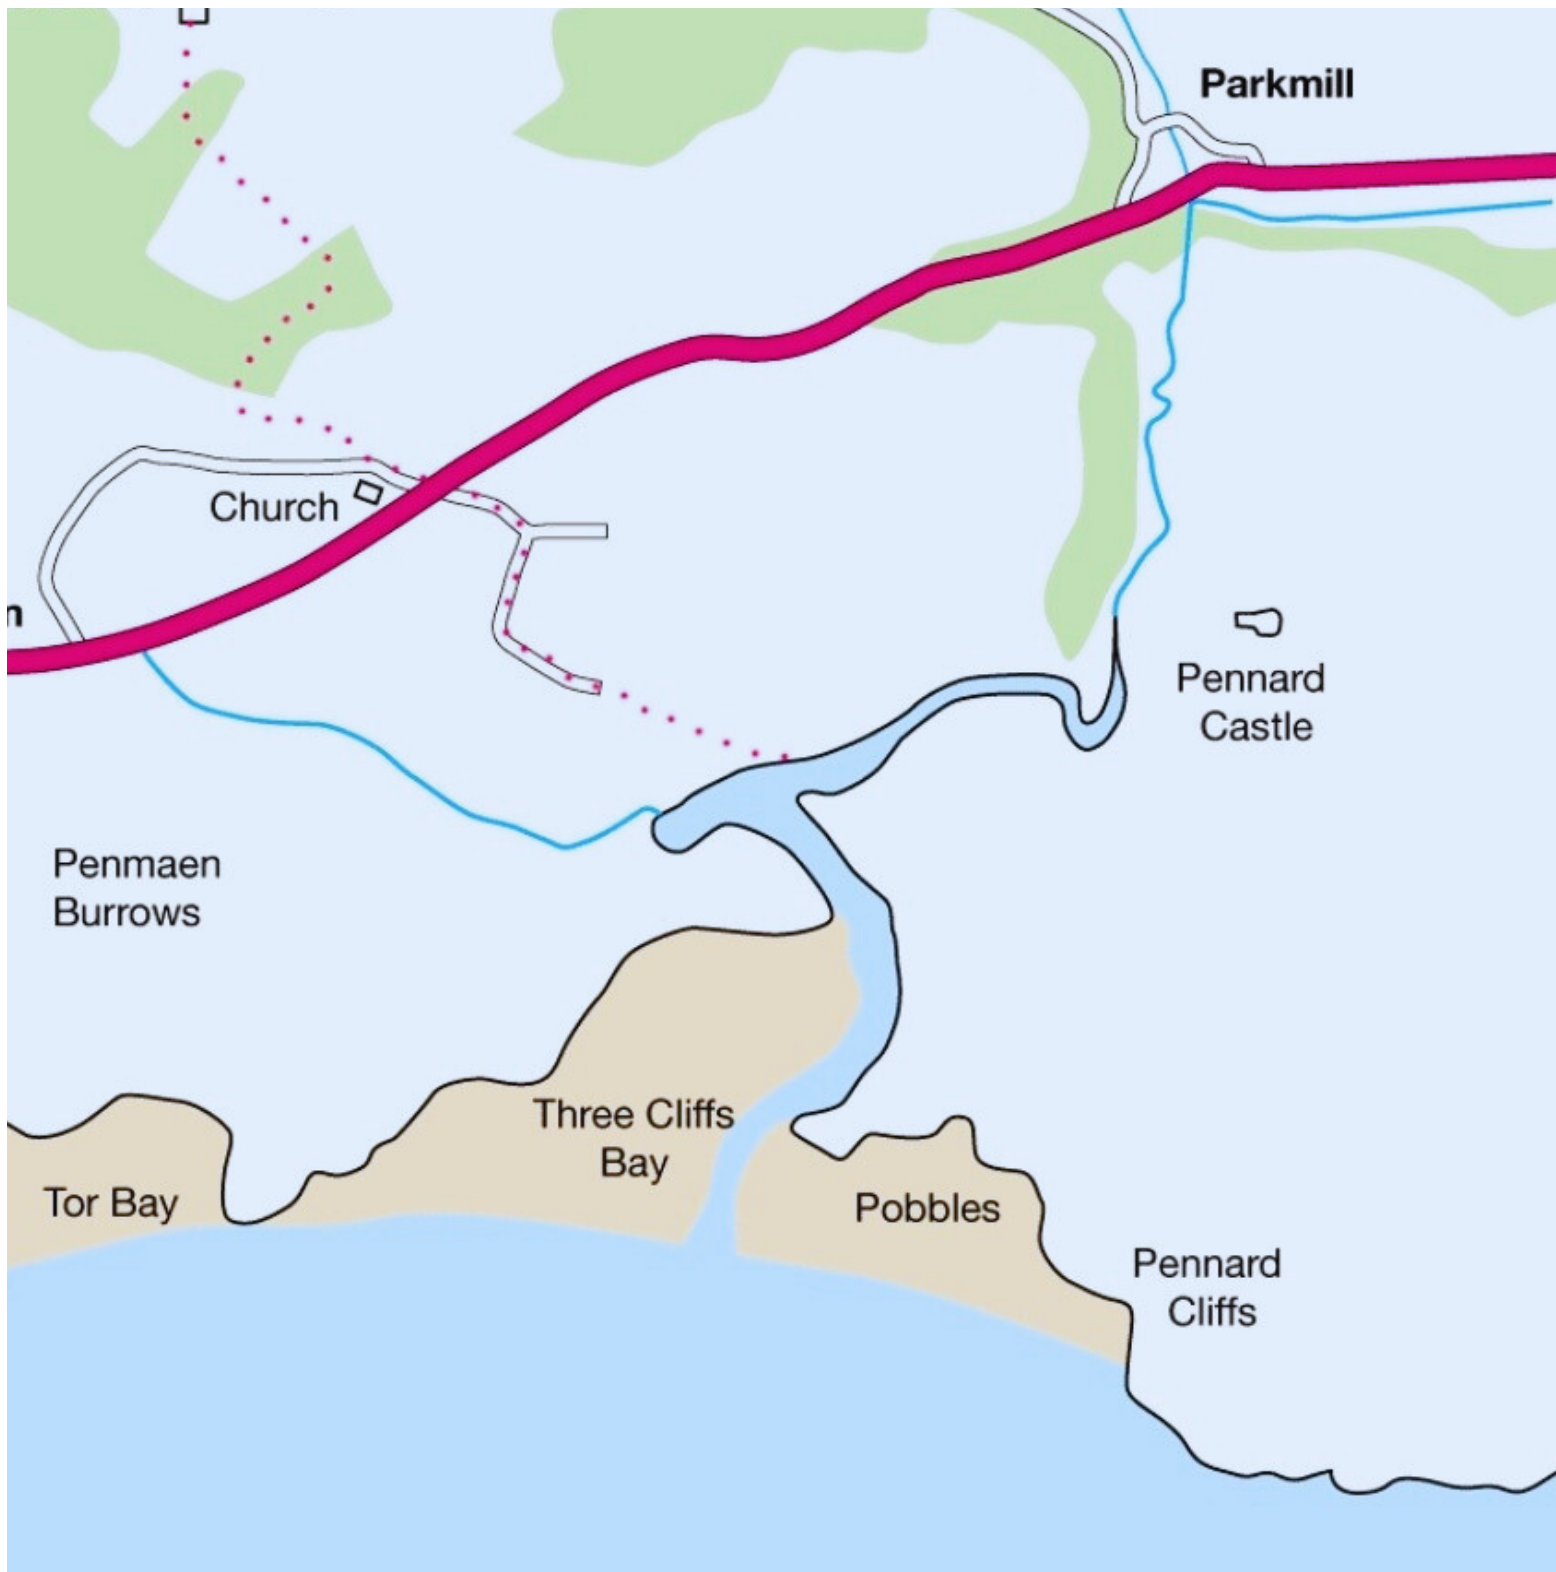

Pennard castle sketches, medievalheritage.eu

reconstruction of the castle from the early 14th century, without a later four-sided western tower, Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Wales

Image 1 of 10

51.5766°N 4.1023°W

Overlooks Three Cliffs Bay

Map of Pennard Castle, Park Le Breos

Native Folklore and colonisers

Native Folklore and colonisers

Pennard castle, Gwyr

Native Folklore and colonisation

Pennard castle, Gwyr

Ignorance of Native culture, and customs

Native Folklore and colonisation

Pennard castle, Gwyr

Ignorance of Native culture, and customs

Native revenge

Native Folklore and colonisation

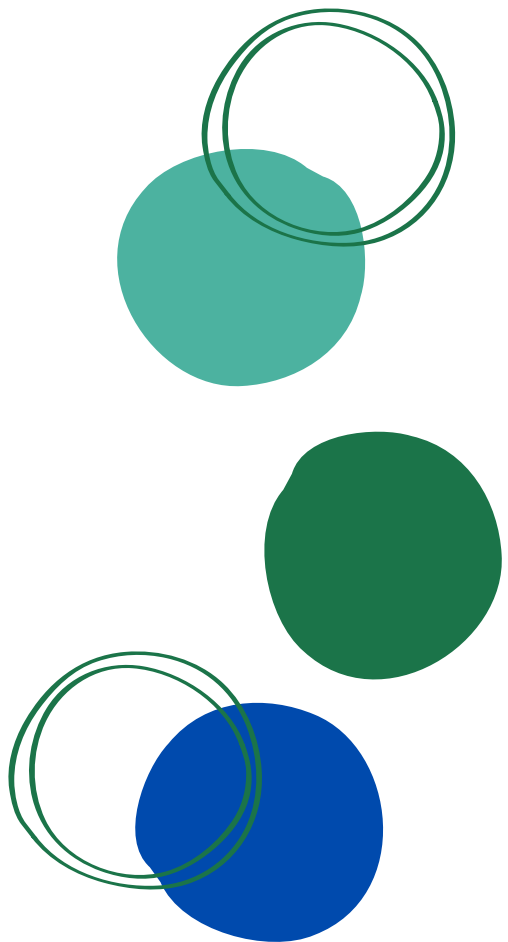

Pennard castle, Gwyr

Ignorance of Native culture, and customs

Native revenge

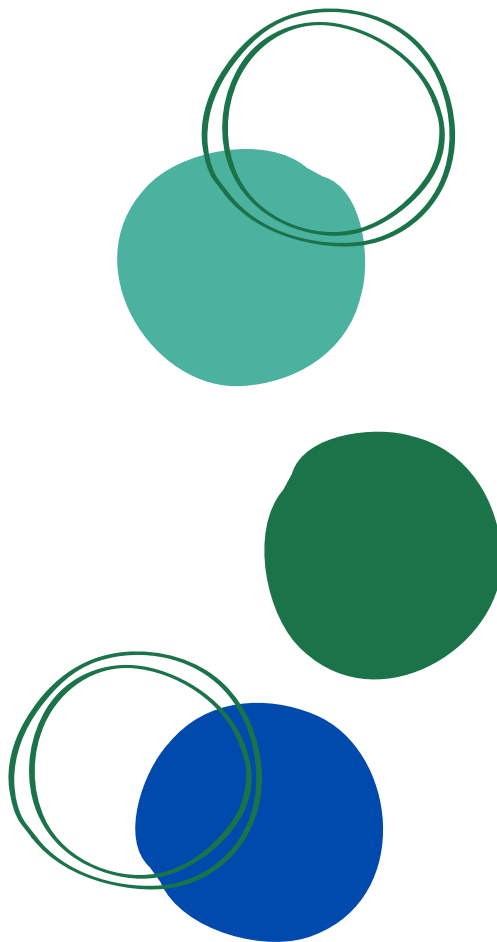

Some historical fact

Who were the Le Breos Family?

Who were the Le Breos Family?

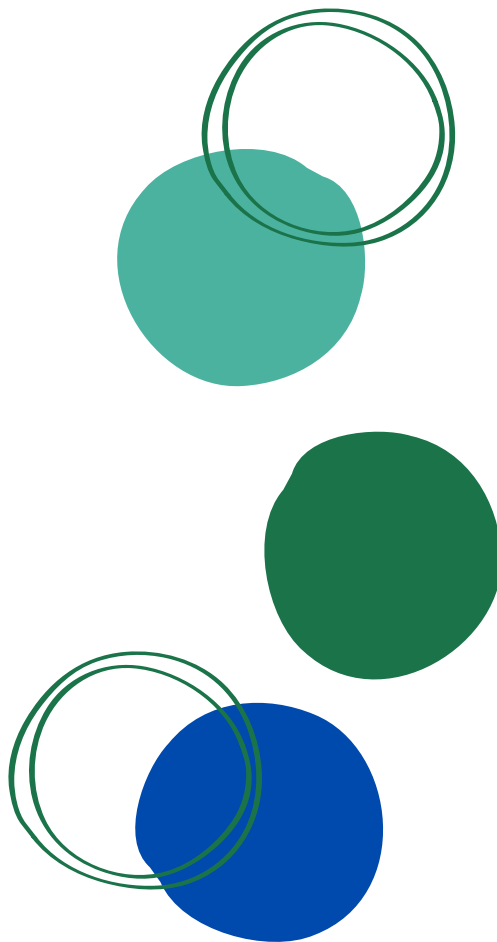

A prominent Norman invasion, and marcher Lord family

Who were the Le Breos Family?

A prominent Norman invasion, and marcher Lord family

The Norman Lords of Gwyr from 1203

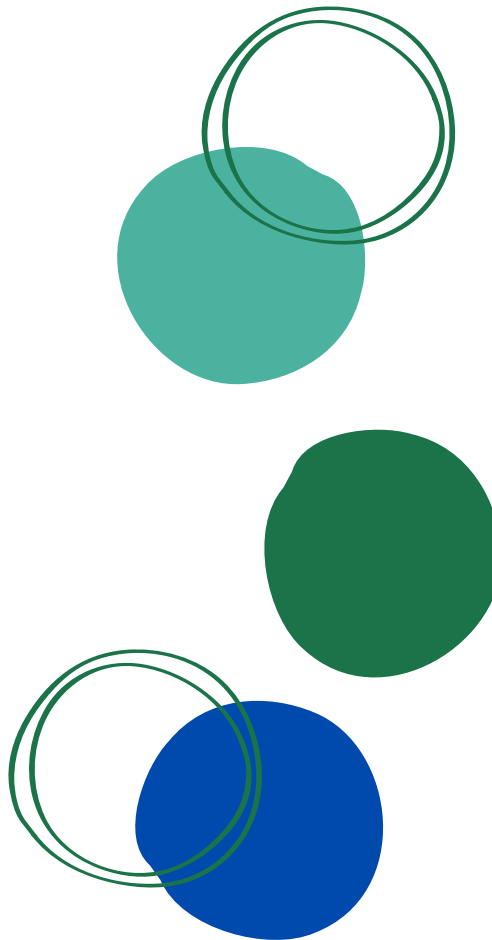

Who were the Le Breos Family?

A prominent Norman invasion, and marcher Lord family

The Norman Lords of Gwyr from 1203

Barely known?

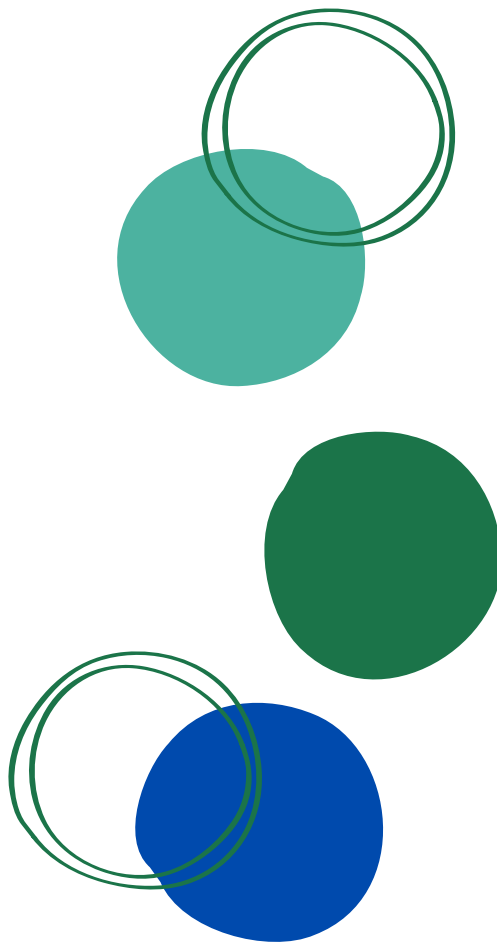

Who were the Le Breos Family?

A prominent Norman invasion, and marcher Lord family

The Norman Lords of Gwyr from 1203

Barely known?

They take their family name from their family estate in South Normandy,
Briouze-Saint-Gervais

Who were the Le Breos Family?

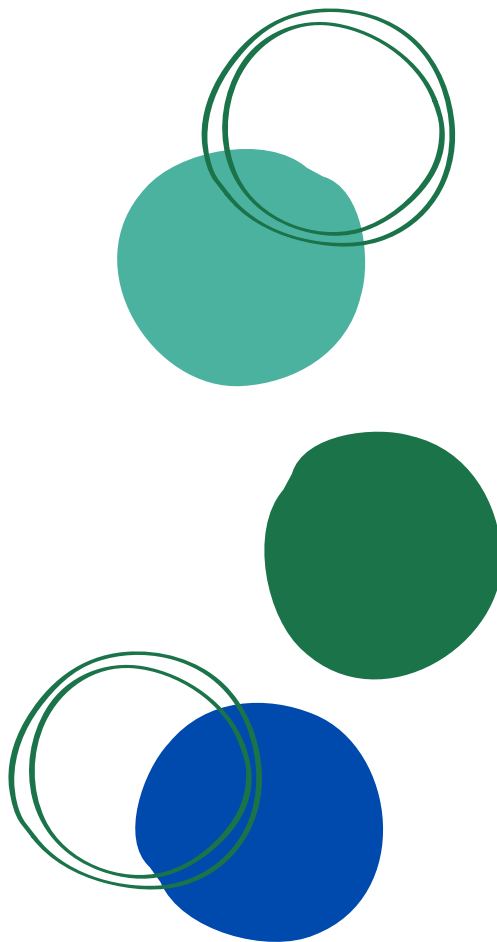

A prominent Norman invasion, and marcher Lord family

The Norman Lords of Gwyr from 1203

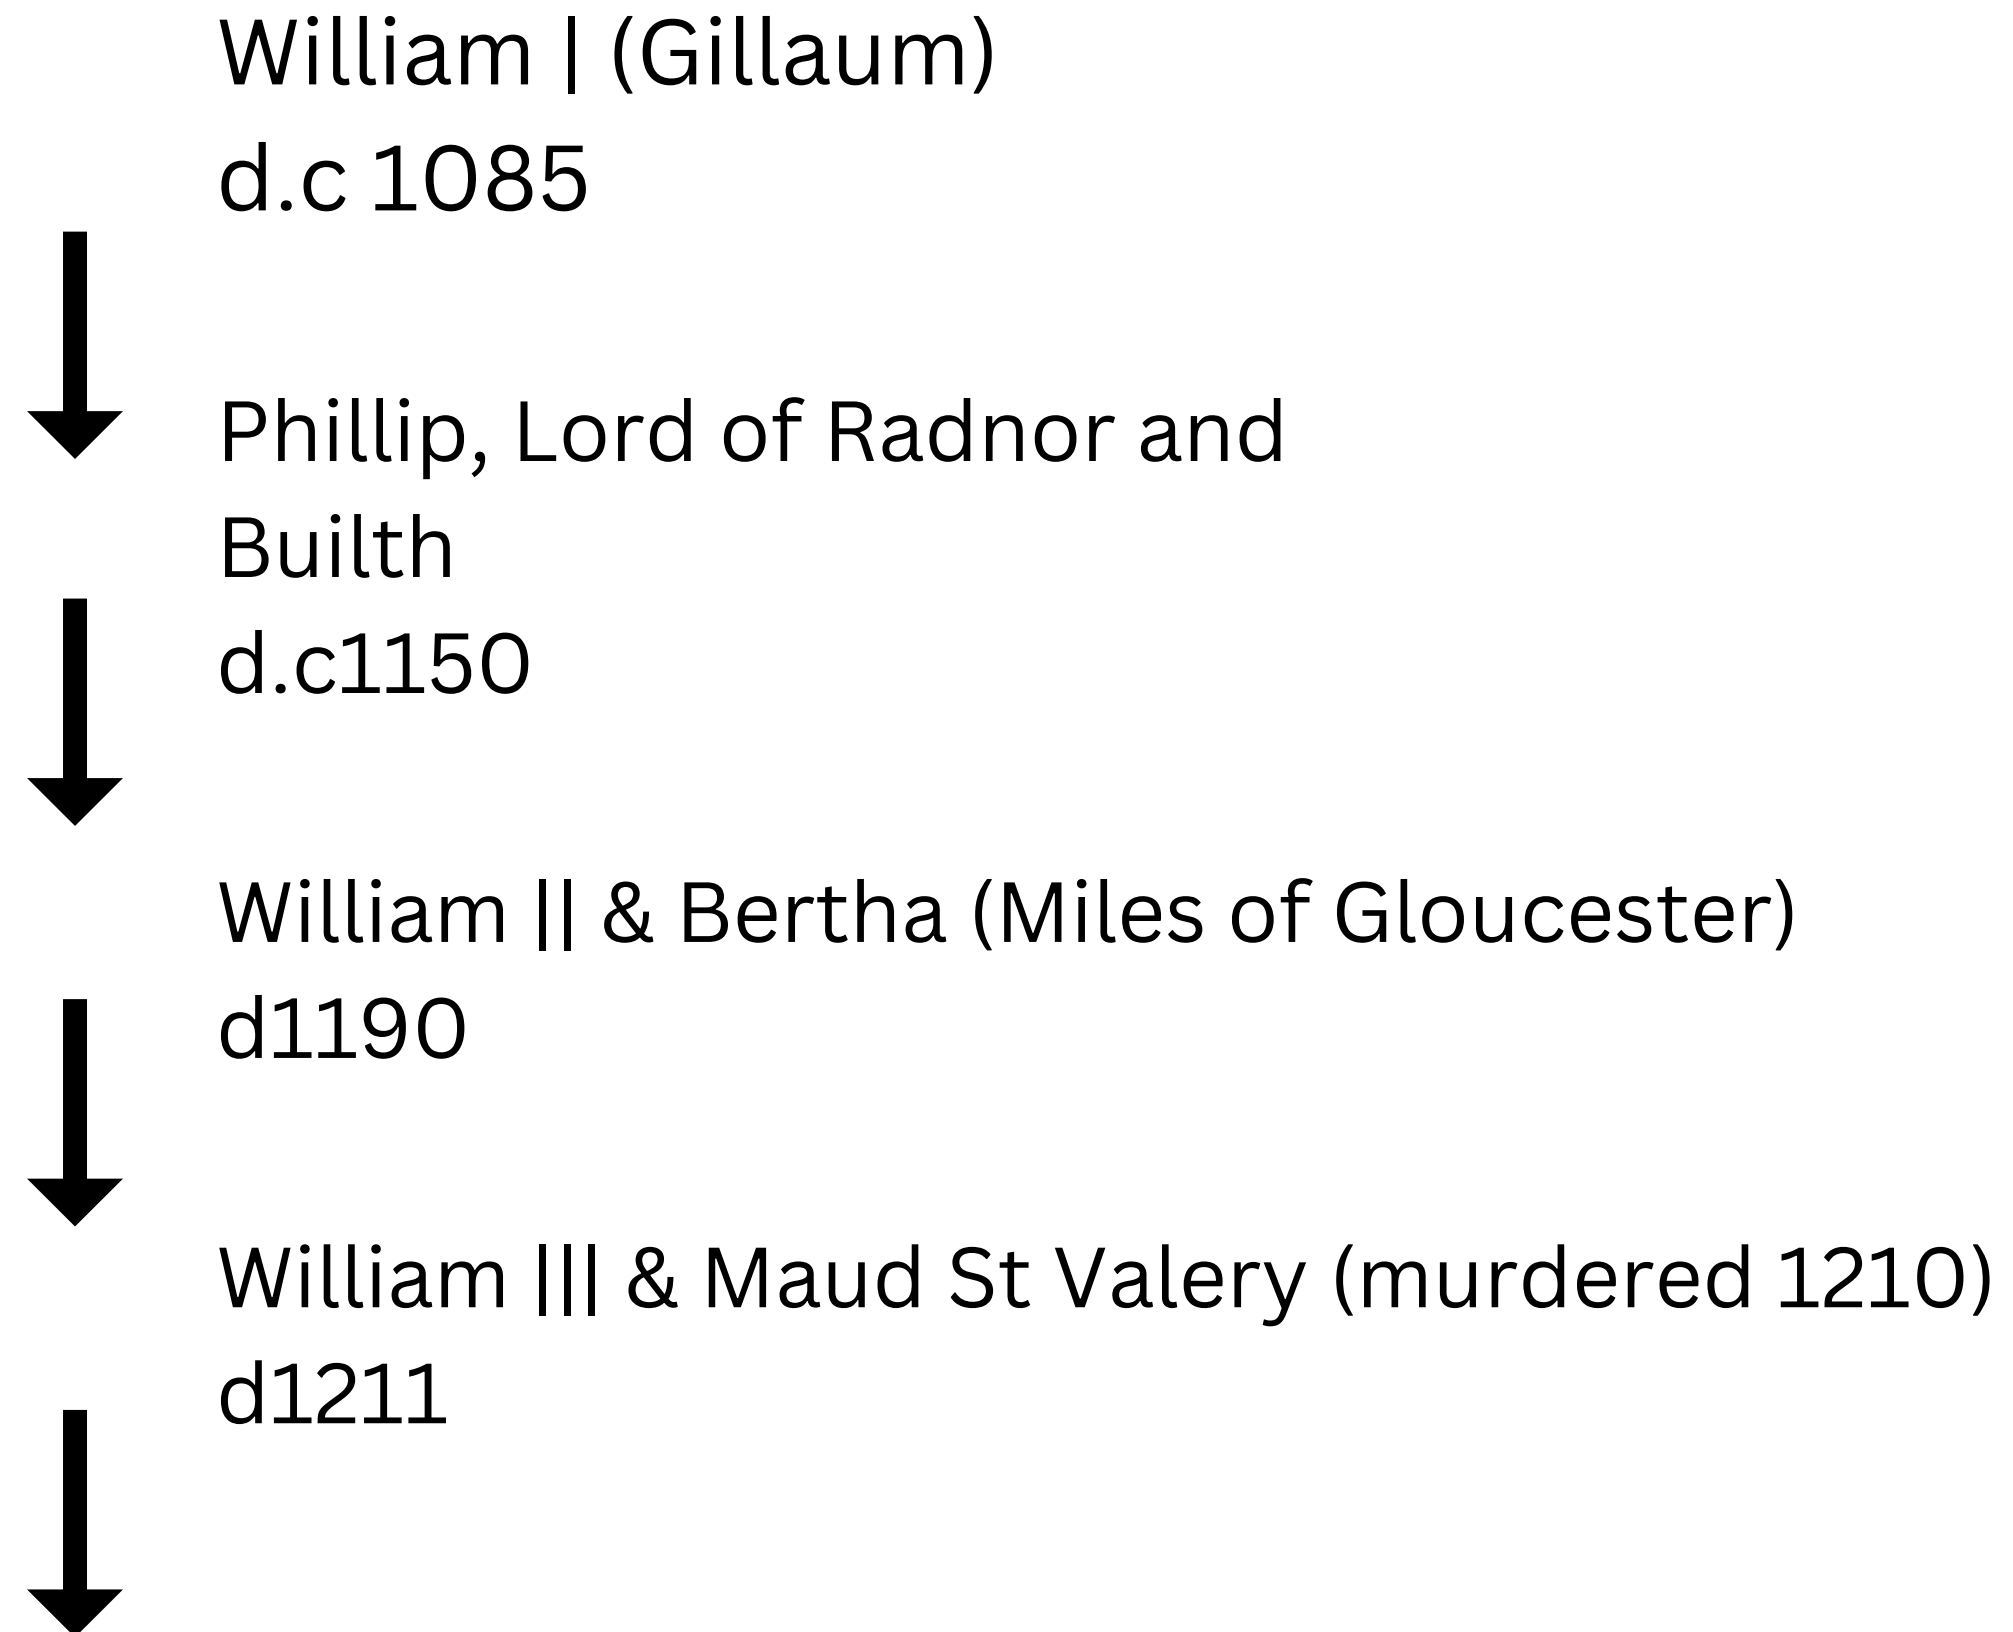

Barely known?

They take their family name from their family estate in South Normandy,
Briouze-Saint-Gervais

Which they later Anglicised from de Briouze to de Braose, a name now cemented in Gwyr history as Le Breos

William I, First Lord of Bramber Family tree

William I, First Lord of Bramber Family tree

view of the castle ruins from the north, from 1741
in the engraving of Samuel and Nathaniel Buck
Image 2 of 10

Pennard castle sketches, medievalheritage.eu

The history between the Anglo-Normans/Saxons and the Chiefs of Cymru

Is it really as simple as us vs. them?

The history between the Anglo-Normans/Saxons and the Chiefs of Cymru

Is it really as simple as us vs. them?

- History Vs. Folklore

The history between the Anglo-Normans/Saxons and the Chiefs of Cymru

Is it really as simple as us vs. them?

- History Vs. Folklore
- Vs. Modern perspectives

Book Bibliography

Ann Marie Thomas, Medieval Gower Stories (Alina Publishing Swansea 2017 United Kingdom).

South Wales Paranormal Research, Haunted Swansea and Beyond (Stroud: History Press 2008 United Kingdom).

Ann Marie Thomas, Broken Reed: The Lords of Gower and King John (2003 Alina Publishing Swansea United Kingdom).

Ann Marie Thomas, The Magna Carta Story (Alina Publishing 2015 United Kingdom).

W Jenkyn Thomas, The Welsh Fairy Book (2001 Mineola, New York: Dover Publications).

website Bibliography

'City Witness'. [n.d.]. Wwww.medievalswansea.ac.uk

<<http://www.medievalswansea.ac.uk/en/text/3.html>> [accessed 26 March 2023]

County Council, Swansea City and. [n.d.]. '1200 - 1320 - the de Breos Years', Swansea

<<https://swansea.gov.uk/debreosyears?lang=en>> [accessed 26 March 2023]

'Parc Le Breos House Blog'. [n.d.]. Parc Le Breos <<https://parc-le-breos.co.uk/>> [accessed 26 March 2023]

'Pennard - Castle'. [n.d.]. Ancient and Medieval Architecture

<<https://medievalheritage.eu/en/main-page/heritage/wales/pennard-castle/>> [accessed 26 March 2023]

Stuff, Good. [n.d.]. 'Pennard Castle, Southgate, Swansea', Britishlistedbuildings.co.uk

<<https://britishlistedbuildings.co.uk/300011539-pen>> [accessed 26 March 2023]

Waters. 2014. 'Walk > Southgate to Pennard Castle', Thegowersociety.org.uk

<<https://www.thegowersociety.org.uk/en/walk-southgate-to-pennard-castle>> [accessed 26 March 2023]