Personal career profile

I'm a very dedicated and compassionate individual who is seeking to transition into a career as a community support worker. As a mother of two, I have prioritised my family over my career in recent years, during which I discovered my deep passion for caring for others. I am known for my empathetic nature, positive energy, and commitment. I am very eager to bring these qualities to healthcare. I am empathetic, caring, and very supportive, especially with adults with disabilities, mental health, and Dementia who have been my priorities. Although my experience is primarily in the childcare and entertainment industry. I am currently pursuing a university course to gain the knowledge and skills required for a successful career in the health and care field.

Education

2024 – ongoing Certificate in Higher Education in care (UWTSD)

This course entails developing knowledge and skills applicable in the health and social care sectors. I am learning and developing digital, academic, referencing, and employability skills which are relevant in health and social care.

2010-2012 Hospitality and Catering Gower College Swansea

With this course I learned how to welcome and serve customers and take orders. I practiced working as part of a team at a fast pace and under pressure, simulating busy working environments.

Working experiences

2019-2021 Waitress at Tiffanys Cafe

I was responsible for taking orders, money handling, and cleaning, respecting high standards. I had the responsibility of communicating efficiently with the customers, making sure they were satisfied with the service and food provided.

2017-2019 Barmaid Savanna Nightclub

As a barmaid I must be focused and able to work in a fast environment. Having the ability to work flexibly was crucial as a nightclub could be open at all hours. My role requires working as part of a team, fast service, cleaning and maintaining the environment to a high standard, money handling, satisfying customers' needs and requests.

2012-2013 Apprenticeship at the Clase Nursery School

At this nursery, I was required to undertake roles such as supporting children of different ages and meeting each child's expectations and needs. Three important tasks that I had to undertake with the children were teaching them personal care, playing safely outdoors, and communicating effectively with each child, making sure they were entertained.
