This essay contains many interesting facts relevant to the essay question. You give plenty of examples of unjust laws. But you need to use the philosophical reasoning to explain why they are unjust, and at present your philosophical sources are extremely limited. Perhaps you should start by establishing the relationships between law & justice, & justice & morality. Both moral codes & laws are constructed by human beings but it need not follow that moral systems & the notion of justice are purely a matter of context. Your examples
