

KIA ELISE BRECKON

SINGER ACTRESS

PROFILE

British soprano Kia Elise Breckon has recently graduated from Wales Academy of Voice and Dramatic Arts (UWTSD) BMus (Hons) Vocal Performance course. As a voice student major, she received vocal technique lessons from Classical Soprano Camilla Roberts and received weekly coaching sessions from Sharon Richards. She worked extensively on developing and extending her repertoire from Händel to Heggie. With a growing knowledge of Italian, French and German language and repertoire, she also has basic knowledge of the Spanish and Russian languages for voice. In recent projects, she has performed as a member of the Academy Voices at The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Celebration where she performed for HRH Queen Elizabeth II and other members of the Royal Family. During her past studies, she completed her Foundation Musical theatre Diploma at the Midlands Academy of Dance and Drama where she studied with Glyn Kerslake (The Phantom of the Opera), Jonny Fines (A Gentleman and an Officer UK Tour) and Stewart Avon Arnold. Since finishing her Bachelor of Music Degree she is now in the process of completing a Masters degree in Arts Management at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama.
