TASK DESCRIPTION

Task 1 of 3 (30 Marks): Academic skills quiz – 45 minutes (in class)

In week 5, during a scheduled class session, you will complete an academic skills quiz. It will last for 45 minutes, and you are required to complete it within the allocated time.

The quiz will assess your knowledge about time management techniques, note-taking, finding, assessing, and using information, academic writing style, academic misconduct, and referencing skills. Some questions may be multiple choice, some may require one - or two-word answers, and you may be required to produce a reference for a source from the elements given. The task must be completed independently.

Task 2 of 3 (40 Marks): Application of academic skills exercise – 90 mins (in class)

In week 7, during a scheduled class session, you will complete an application of academic skills exercise during class time. This practical exercise will last for 90 mins, and you must complete it within the allocated time.

The exercise will assess your ability to take notes from a short text, paraphrase individual sentences, and write a paragraph in line with academic conventions.

The task must be completed independently.

Task 3 of 3 (30 Marks): In-Class Reflective Writing Task - 900 words equivalent (+ /– 10%) – 1 hour and 40 minutes (in class)

In week 10, during a scheduled class session, you will complete a reflective writing task.

The purpose of this task is to demonstrate your ability to write reflectively about your learning throughout the Academic Skills module. You will be given a template to help structure your writing. The template will guide you through a reflective model and include prompts to support your thinking and writing.

You will also be provided with a handout containing excerpts from three texts that you have studied and discussed in class. You are expected to incorporate ideas from these texts into your reflection to support your insights and create references for them.

Your reflection should focus on your personal learning journey, including your strengths, areas for improvement, and the impact of the module on your academic and personal development. You should refer to specific experiences such as

- Task 1 and Task 2
- Class activities and discussions (e.g., topics covered in class such as referencing and paraphrasing)
- Feedback received
- Skills you have developed

The task must be completed independently.

GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMPLETION OF TASKS

1. Engagement with Literature Skills

Your work must be informed and supported by scholarly material that is relevant to and focused on the task(s) set. You should provide evidence that you have accessed an appropriate range of sources, which may be academic, governmental and industrial; these sources may include academic journal articles, textbooks, current news articles, organizational documents, and websites. You should consider the credibility of your sources; academic journals are normally highly credible sources while websites require careful consideration/selection and should be used sparingly. Any sources you use should be current and up-to- date, mostly published within the last five years or so, though seminal/important works in the field may be older. You must provide evidence of your research/own reading throughout your work, using a suitable referencing system, including in-text citations in the main body of your work and a reference list at the end of your work.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Task 3 – You need to demonstrate your ability to integrate ideas from the provided texts and create a minimum of two in-text references and full references.
- You need to demonstrate your ability to use the Harvard referencing style when referencing. For further instructions, please use this link.

2. Knowledge and Understanding Skill

At level 4, you should be able to demonstrate knowledge of the underlying concepts and principles associated with your area(s) of study. Knowledge relates to the facts, information and skills you have acquired through your learning. You demonstrate your understanding by interpreting the meaning of the facts and information (knowledge). This means that you need to select and include in your work the concepts, techniques, models, theories, etc. appropriate to the task(s) set. You should be able to explain the theories, concepts, etc. to show your understanding. Your mark/grade will also depend upon the extent to which you demonstrate your knowledge and understanding.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Task 1 - You need to demonstrate your awareness and knowledge of the key topics covered in this task by choosing and providing the right responses to the questions asked in the quiz.
- Task 3 – You must provide detailed examples of your learning in the classroom in this module.

3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

You should be able to present, evaluate and interpret qualitative and quantitative data, in order to develop lines of argument and make sound judgements in accordance with basic theories and concepts of your subject(s) of study. You should be able to evaluate the appropriateness of different approaches to solving problems related to your area(s) of study and/or work. Your work must contain evidence of logical, analytical thinking. For example, to examine and break information down into parts, make inferences, compile, compare and contrast information. This means not just describing what! But also justifying: Why? How? When? Who? Where? At what cost? You should provide justification for your arguments and judgements using evidence that you have reflected upon the ideas of others within the subject area and that you are able to make sound judgements and arguments using data and concepts. Where relevant, alternative solutions and recommendations may be proposed.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Task 3 – You should be able to organise your ideas logically. You should also demonstrate your ability to analyse information available from various sources, and you should be able to add your own judgement in interpreting information available to you.

- You must show that you are able to generate strong reflections in relation to your learning from this module. Being able to produce stronger analysis of your learning and draw meaningful conclusions will help you to score higher marks.

4. Practical Skills

At level 4, you should be able to apply the basic underlying concepts and principles to evaluate and interpret these within the context of your area of study. You should be able to demonstrate how the subject-related concepts and ideas relate to real world situations and/or a particular context. How do they work in practice? You will deploy models, methods, techniques, and/or theories, in that context, to assess current situations, perhaps to formulate plans or solutions to solve problems, or to create artefacts. This is likely to involve, for instance, the use of real world artefacts, examples and cases, the application of a model within an organisation and/or benchmarking one theory or organisation against others based on stated criteria.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Task 2 - You need to demonstrate the ability to apply various academic skills that you have learned during this module. For example, your ability to take notes in a specific format, to paraphrase and to write coherent paragraphs.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for employment requiring the exercise of some personal responsibility. This includes demonstrating: that you can communicate the results of your study/work accurately and reliably, and with structured and coherent arguments; that you can initiate and complete tasks and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Task 3: You should write using academic writing style, in full sentences (NOT bullet points) and clear paragraphs, in a way that conveys the meaning intended.
- Once written, you should ensure you proofread your work to minimise the incidence of grammar, spelling, punctuation and vocabulary errors. The work does not need to be perfect but should reflect the way you normally write in English. The use of translation and/or paraphrasing software will not be allowed.

STUDENT FEEDBACK FORM

This section details the extent to which the assessment criteria are demonstrated by you, which in turn determines your mark. The marks available for each category of skill are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

GENERIC ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Level 4

In accordance with the Framework for Higher Education Qualifications, at the end of Level 4 students will be expected to have demonstrated knowledge of the basic underlying concepts and principles of a subject, and an ability to evaluate and interpret these within the context of that area of study. They should be able to present, evaluate and interpret qualitative and quantitative data in order to develop lines of argument and make sound judgements in accordance with basic theories and concepts of their subject(s) of study. They will have learned how to evaluate different approaches to solving problems, and will be able to communicate the results of their study/work accurately and reliably, and with structured and coherent arguments. They will be able to undertake further training and develop new skills within a structured and managed environment and will have the qualities and transferable skills necessary for employment requiring the exercise of some personal responsibility.
