

What is plagiarism and how can you avoid it.

Emily Evans 2215303

What is Plagiarism?

"Plagiarism is presenting someone else's work or ideas as your own, with or without their consent, by incorporating it into your work without full acknowledgement."
(University of Oxford, 2022)

Reasons people plagiarise

- The appeal of getting a good mark.
- Unable to get enough research.
- Not interested.
- the panic of failing.
- Unorganised and can keep track of timings.
- By accident – it's the students responsibility to check their work for plagiarism before submitting it.
- Not caring about the repercussions.

(RecruitingDaily

Methods on how to avoid plagiarism.

- Its important to make sure you keep record of every source you get research from.
- Write everything in your own wording.
- Use citation.
- Be honest in your work.
- Do not pay for your work to be carried out by someone else as this is plagiarism.
- Paraphrase
- Use a plagiarism website like turnitin

(Kramer, 2022)

summary

This is a short video to explain what plagiarism is and how it can be avoided in your work.

ECGE4005P/C – Learning in the digital era

