GENERAL COMMENTS

Instructor

Hi Holly. There is a good body of work here with interesting takes on the tasks presented. I especially like the interesting use of on point perspective being applied to your piece with the dock, taking the technique you used with the road and applying it on a completely different platform. Well done.

The work shows personal passion projects and imaginative, creative thinking. Well done.

Some interesting techniques used overall, but would liked to have seen some more Anatomy work, as well as another attempt at compositing shown.

I like some of the work driven by colours, namely the blues and pinks. Overall the portfolio page itself is themed well with a good choice of background colour complimenting the tone of the work. Well done.
