

ONS - Death records of England and Wales

The number of death in 2021 it has increased exponentially

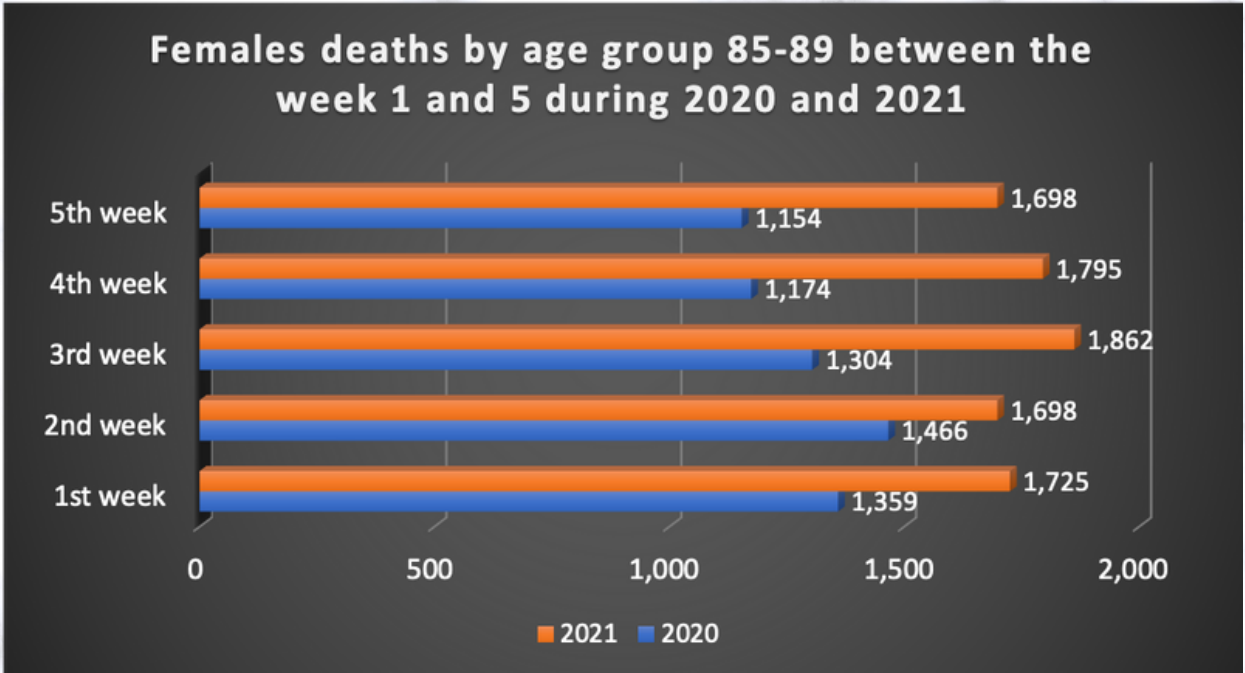

The average of death in Wales is only around 7% respect of England Death's .

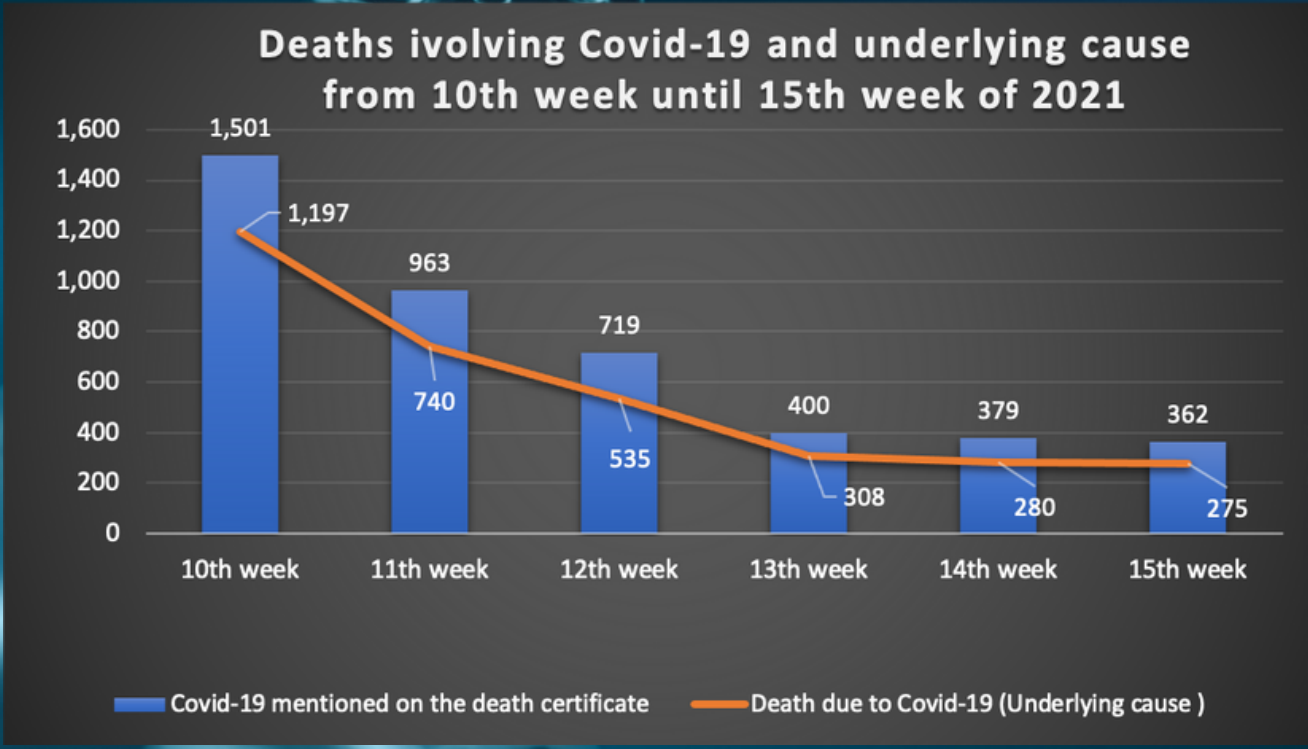

The data shows that, in the 2020, passing the 13th week ,the deaths increased doubled from the precedent weeks

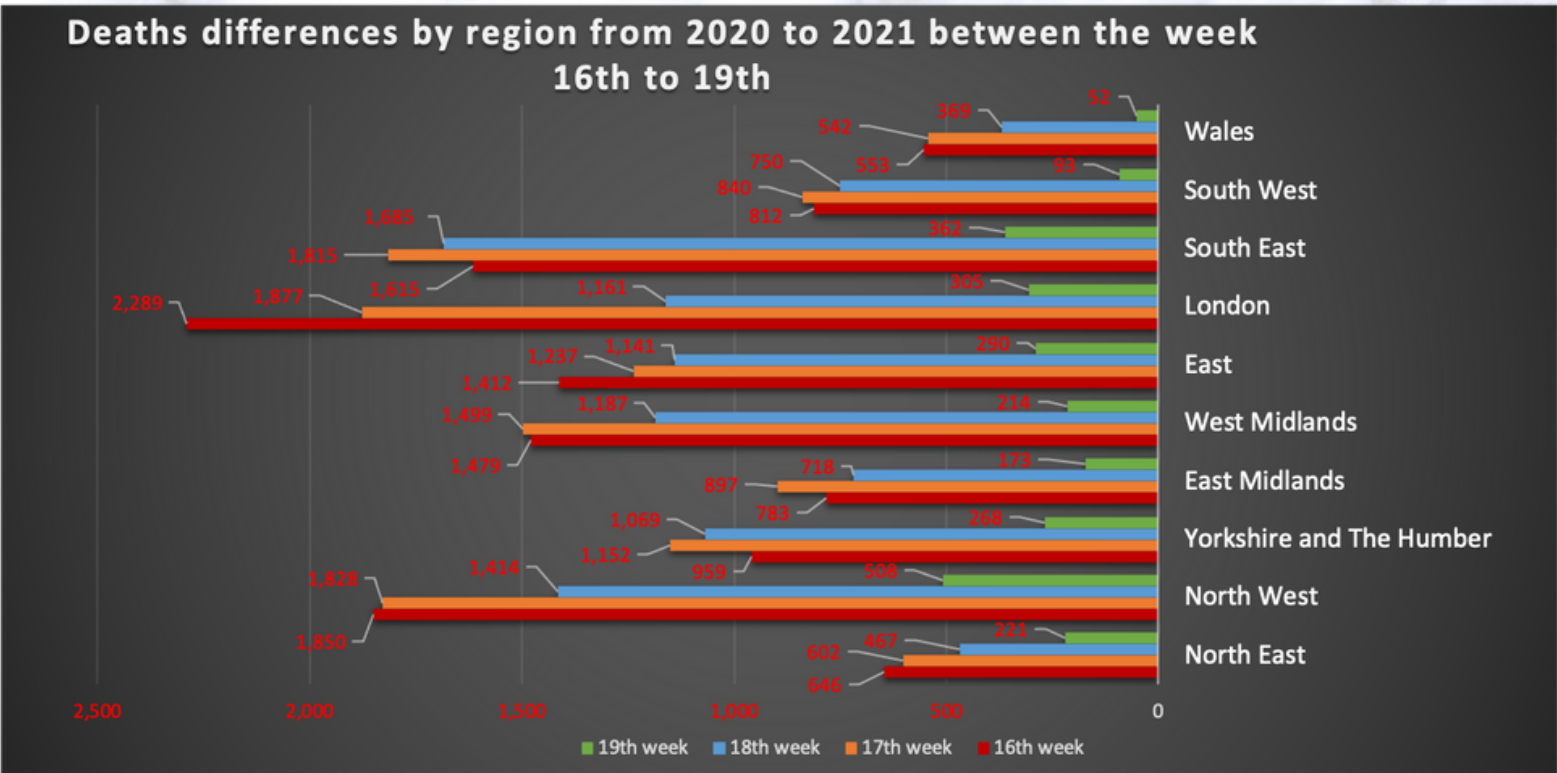

ONS - Death records of England and Wales

During 2021 the deaths of females by the age group 85-89 are higher than 2020 .

Deaths of Covid-19 mentioned on the certificate and the deaths for underlying cause are directly proportionate to each other . Consequentially, is clear that there is a connection on the deaths .

The deaths differences that has been displayed on this chart , are showing that in 2021 the amount it has been decreased vertiginously .