Introduction

Cicero

Gratitude = Mother of all virtues

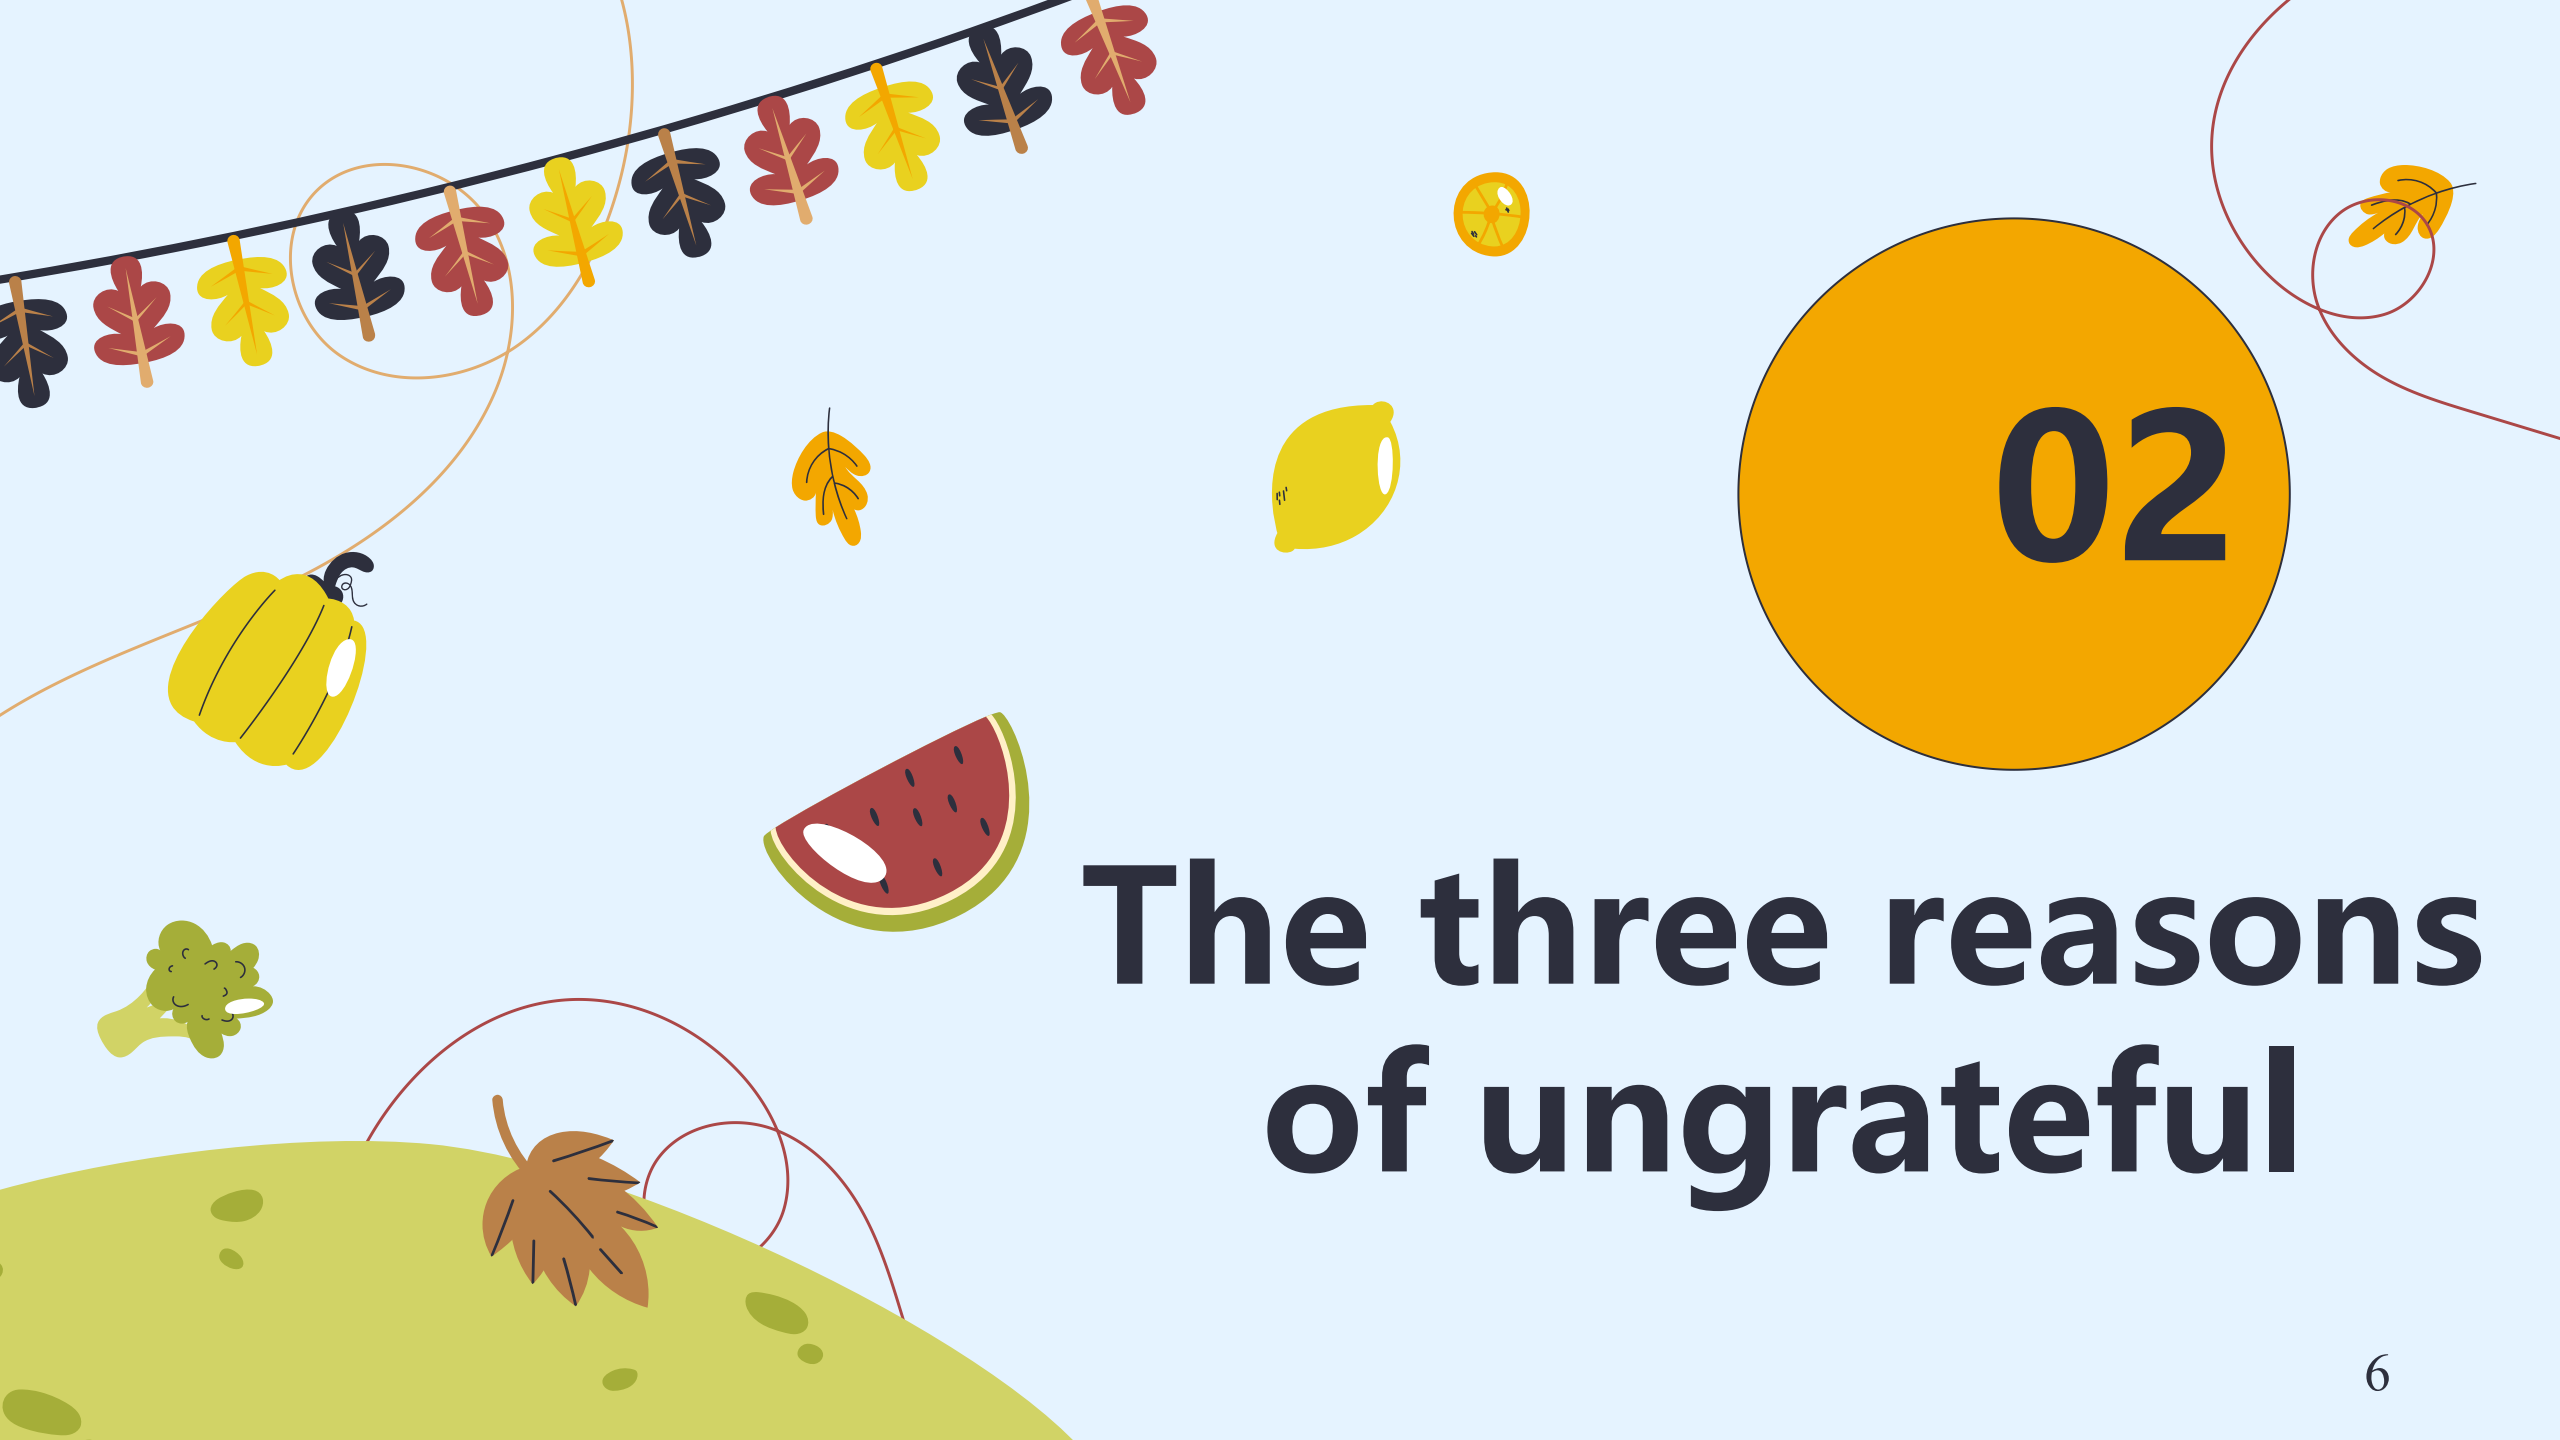

“Virtue brings its own rewards” 善

有善報 is a moral principle that people adhere to?

02

The three reasons of ungrateful

1.The influence of materialism

2.The reinforcement of individualism

3.The lack of gratitude education

1.The three reasons of ungrateful

Materialism is the belief that money, possessions and physical comforts are more important than spiritual values.¹

1.The three reasons of ungrateful

Individuals with higher levels of materialistic values tend to show lower levels of gratitude.

2. The reinforcement of individualism

- The concept of individualism can be traced back to the Renaissance and the Reformation in Europe.
- There was a shift in focus toward human potential and achievement, moving away from collective institutions such as the Church and toward individual ability and rights.

2. The reinforcement of individualism

People with an individualistic mindset tend to prioritize their own goals, interests, and values when taking action.

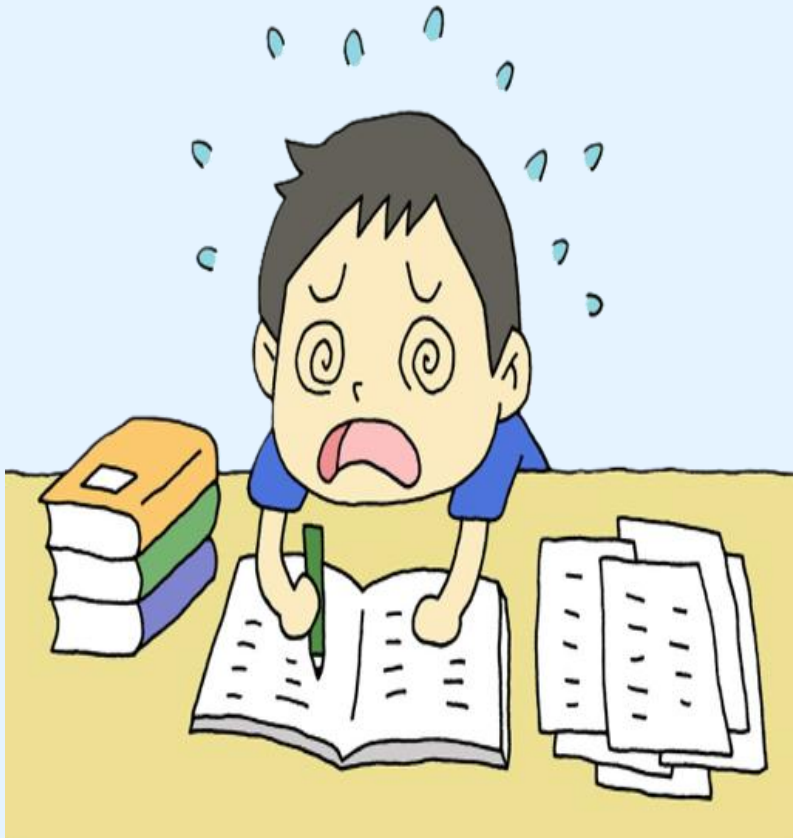

3.The three reasons of ungrateful

In family

1.The three reasons of ungrateful

In school

Society's evaluation of a school's teaching quality is still primarily based on academic scores.

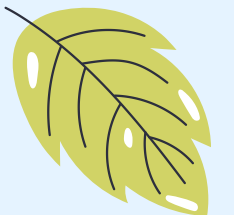

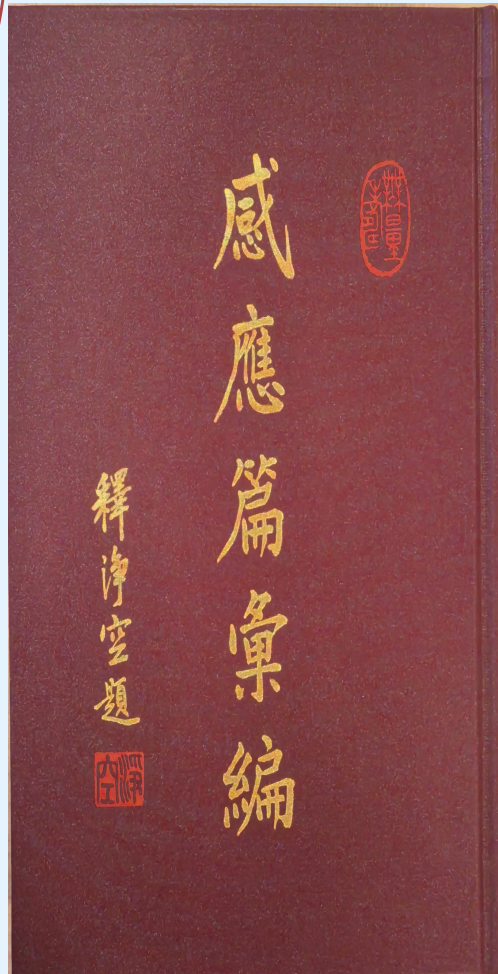

03

The four objects of gratitude

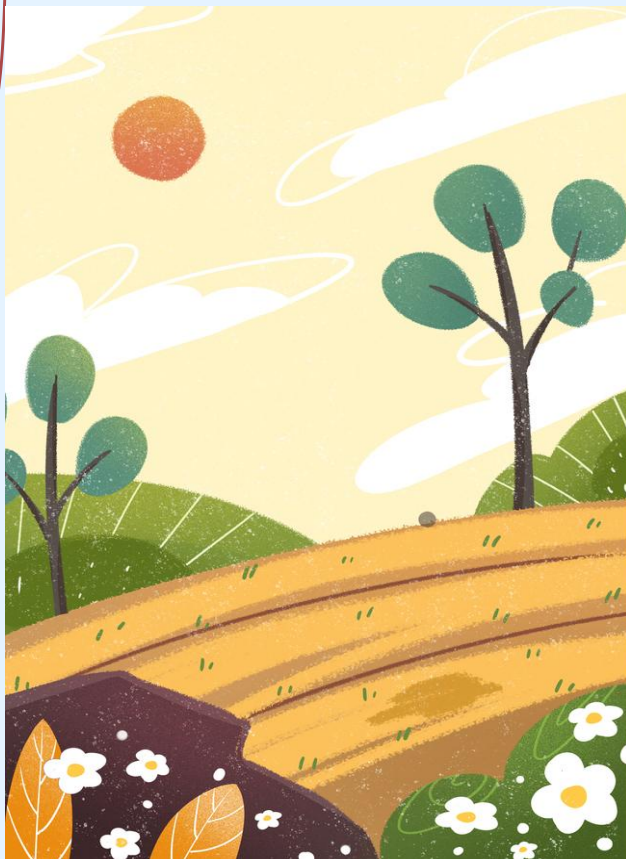

- What aspects should we focus on to help children cultivate thankfulness?
- Who are the people we should be grateful to?

- Heaven and Earth
- country
- parents
- mentors

Heaven and Earth
nurture and sustain all life.

We live in peace and happiness

Others will respect and admire the results of your parents' education.

To receive and uphold the teachings of the sutras, to read and recite them, and to explain and embody them for others through one's own actions.

Conclusion

materialism

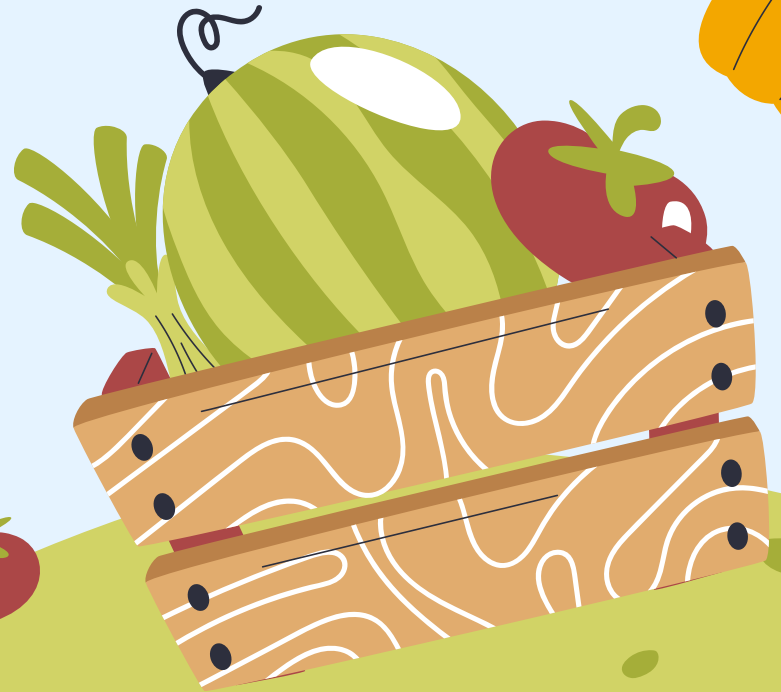

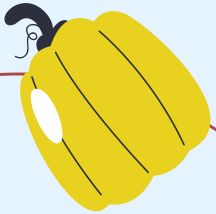

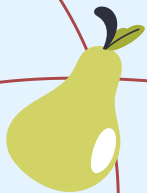

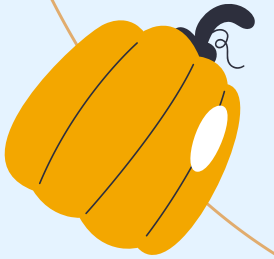

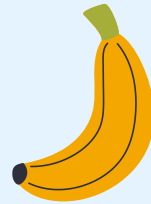

individualism

A lack of education from families and schools

The education of children should begin with teaching gratitude toward Heaven and Earth, the country, parents and mentors.
