Lab 4: Lets go F(ph)ishing

Part 2

Note:

This task needs to be done independently and ethically to understand the vulnerabilities and to practice good will. Like from our previous classes, without any intention to cause negative impacts.

Scenario 1: There is a company with the name SNR Business Solutions which is running a project called Puducherry this weekend. This company is located in Puducherry, India.

Scenario 2: There is a company with the name Usha Amma Educational Society which is located in Puducherry, India.

Select any one scenario and do a footprinting exercise using passive information gathering (without tampering or attempting to make unauthorized access into the Company) and collect the available Information.

Based on the available information write a report to the CEO of the company stating the possible vulnerabilities/ weak points you have identified. OR list out all the information gathered by you. (Report Limit Minimum 250 Words)

Collecting information about the Management/ Head/ Team of the Organisation.

Collecting information about their business details of the Organisation.

Collecting information about their location (address/ phone numbers/ email ids) of the Organisation.

Collecting information about their Infrastructure (IT, Domain Names, Year of Start, Financial Information etc) of the Organisation.

The Usha Amma Educational Society has many points of information online, and each one is a potential entry point for a hacker. For example one of the executive members has a public linkedin account - <https://www.linkedin.com/in/natwar-sharma-07831271/> which could be used to contact him, install malware on his machine which would give entry to the company network next time he uses his laptop there. The same for social engineering scams using the company's email address.

There is a photo and a map online, so someone that wanted to gain physical entry could find them and allow remote access for future.

Here is a list of information available to anyone online:
