TIME MANAGEMENT

Leadership in the food industry

- Leadership is crucial for the success of a company (Ko and Kang, 2019)
- Leaders impact the success or failure of the company by 45%–65% (Bass, 1985)
- Study by Ko and Kang, 2019 reported that leadership is associated with employees' behaviours in regards to customer service, food safety and hygiene

Leadership position

- Kitchen manager – stock controlling, ordering and supervise staff – no official education requirements
- General Manager – day-to-day running of a business, financial resources management – higher education qualifications (i.e. college diplomas)
- Area Manager – varied job role – bachelors or masters degree in business
