Eiman has been a good support during her time with us on her placement. She has always been keen to learn and improve her understanding of her roles assigned to her. She has a can do attitude and always followed the tasks assigned to her. She would not shy away from asking questions to better understand the task assigned to her. She was a quick learner and adapted to the work environment very well. Her work was to a good standard and accurate. She was a positive team player and always stayed productive throughout shifts and her supervisor on shifts always positive about her contributions. Eiman was always on time and followed company procedures when she was not able to come to work. Overall Eiman did very good in her time with us and it was a pleasure to have her work with us.
