Respondent	Response
	Really enjoyed this module, good introduction to the MA and the tutors were very good and engaging
	I have enjoyed this course and feel I have a great foundation to the rest of this MA program. I do feel at times we received massive amounts of information on a topic and flew through parts that felt important, yet there is so much ground to cover, I am not offering a critique, just a reflection.
	Suggestion: Email the ppt presentations a day earlier so that there's more time to print them out ahead of the webinar.
	It would be beneficial if each week we got just 1 email that included everything such as: all 3 powerpoints, the webex link and a list of the required reading for that week plus a 1 sentence overview of the week.
	The reason i say this is because we often got 3, 4 or sometimes more emails for the module per week with different presentations, handouts, links, papers , etc which can become confusing if you are doing multiple modules and when you go back and try and revise.
	So just 1 email with the subject line 'week 1 - introduction' and all relevant things attached would make it slightly easier
	Overall, the module really broadened my knowledge on the topic, it is a fantastic start to the MA. All of the tutors knowledge and enthusiasm for the topics really show. I often left feeling really excited and enthused after watching each seminar I wish I could have been there to engage in the comments and student discussion but unfortunately I could not make the 4pm sessions.
	We are given a broad range of reading which was very overwhelming at first because it always felt like I was behind but it is useful for the essay questions because there are dozens of sources readily available to quote.
	I wish this module was longer because it has felt like a very quick and intense 8 weeks but wonderful nonetheless.
	Thank you to everyone for providing such a unique MA programme that I could not find anywhere else in the world.

Respondent	Response
	I do find myself very fortunate to take a part in MACAA and greatly enjoyed the Foundations module and all the seminars and everything involved.
	In respect of assessment and feedback I think things can get better with a more flexible approach to creative deviations.
	Thank you for being there and doing what you are doing! :)
