

Summary:

Kieron Jones releases new SYNTHWAVE single "Going Under" from upcoming album "Such Stuff" – 26th November 2021

Biography:

London based Kieron Jones is an artist and producer. His website is kieronjones.com. A celebrated Shakespeare performer and education specialist his work takes him across the UK and around the world – from country to urban, from palaces to the favelas of Brazil! Kieron is currently completing his Masters in Music Production from the world-famous Tileyard Education, London.

Track Info:

Kieron's experiences are reflected in his music. The upcoming album "Such Stuff" is inspired by Shakespeare's famous speech "We are such stuff as dreams are made on, and our little lives are rounded with a sleep".

"I am a child of the 80s and I love the video games, movies, style of that era. I wanted the production to ooze that vibe yet with a modern twist. The song is about the feeling of losing control in life, in love, how things can overcome you and you feel that you are quite literally going under. There is hope though, and even when there seems to be no answer, time is a healer, you need to remember to take a little breath and carry on!"
