INT. CLASSROOM - DAY

Pan wide shot

The modern-looking classroom is brightly lit from the large windows on the one wall. There are computers that line up against each wall, with three large tables pushed together to form a larger table in the center of the room.

Eight students are sitting around the table and listening to their professor speak. The professor is speaking passionately about his lesson. Some are eager to listen to what he has to say, while others are simply waiting to get out of the class and get on with their day.

Close up Caleb

One student looks about the class to see if anyone is even paying attention, and notices Caleb to be spacing out.

The kitchen is empty apart from the food in the cabinets and fridge, along with plates and silverware drying on the rack. As he checks the cabinets, Caleb only shakes his head and closes the cabinet door.

I don't know. It's already pretty late, and I'm getting tired.

JON

Alright, you can go home. I'm still gonna meet them, though.

CALEB

You sure? You've had a number of drinks.

JON

Nah, man. I'm good. I feel fine.

CALEB

Alright, I'll see you tomorrow, then.

But no, I left him. I left him alone and now he's gone. I don't know what to do with myself. I just don't know. It should've been me. I should've been the one found dead, not Jon.
