

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Research Informed Literature (15 Marks) Extent of research and/or own reading, selection of credible sources, application of appropriate referencing conventions.
You attempted to answer the questions and hit the main points. I would suggest in future you attempt to research and answer the question fully.	15	6
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills (20%) Extent of knowledge and understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the discipline.
You clearly understood the concepts of creating VM's and Microsoft features like Active directory. However you were let down by your research skills and not fully demonstrating your understanding the written answers.	20	10
Cognitive and Intellectual Skills (20 Marks) Analysis, evaluation and synthesis; logic, argument and judgement; analytical reflection; organisation of ideas and evidence
You need to read the assignment in more detail in future, this will ensure you document your skills in a better way to demonstrate understanding.	20	12
4. Practical Application and Deployment Deployment of methods, materials, tools and techniques; application of concepts; formulation of innovative and creative solutions to solve problems.
Your practical application of the assignment was excellent and you showed your knowledge in the majority of the skills required.	40	34
5. Skills for Professional Practice Attributes in professional practice: individual and collaborative working; deployment of appropriate media; presentation and organisation.
You need to read the assignment in more detail in the future to meet the submission requirements and ensure all aspects of your work are uploaded.	5	2
