

Community Attitudes Towards the Mentally Ill (CAMI, Taylor and Dear, 1981) – 4 subscales scoring.

Authoritarian Questions.

Question 33

Question 25

Question 9

Question 1.

Question 17

Question 5 R

Question 21 R

Question 13 R

Question 29 R

Question 37 R

Authoritarian = 'view of the mentally ill person as someone who is inferior and requires supervision and coercion.' In this case higher Authoritarian score corresponded to a high authoritarian view.

Benevolence Questions.

Question 10 R

Question 2 R

Question 18 R

Question 26 R

Question 34 R

Question 30

Question 6

Question 14

Question 22

Question 38

Benevolence = 'a humanistic and sympathetic view of mentally illness' – In this case higher Benevolence score corresponded to a less humanistic and less sympathetic (malevolent) view

Social Restrictiveness

Question 35

Question 3

Question 11

Question 19

Question 27

Question 31 R

Question 23 R

Question 15 R

Question 39 R

Question 7 R

Social Restrictiveness = 'the belief that mentally ill patients are a threat to society and should be avoided.' In the case higher social restrictiveness scores corresponded to a high social restrictiveness view.

Community Mental Health Ideology.

Question 4 R

Question 8

Question 12 R

Question 16

Question 20 R

Question 24

Question 28 R

Question 32

Question 36 R

Question 40

Community Mental Health Ideology (CMHI) = 'the acceptance of mental health services and the integration of mentally ill patients in the community'. In this case higher CMHI scores indicated a rejection of mental health services and integration of people with mental illness in the community.