

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
General Comments
Your assignment did not include all the material requested in the brief. There was very little of the practical section included and no analysis or justification of the technologies used. All this has limited your mark.	100	22
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
In your report you have used a range of different sources which you have referenced and included comments from within your report. You have discussed the concept but not gone into the depth required or looked at case studies to expand your description of the topic.	20	10
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
You provided no depth to your observation on the practical part of the assessment, these are simple statements. You made and presented your presentation and performed this to a reasonable standard.	15	4
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
You made no critical analysis in your observations on the technology.	15
4. Practical Application Skills
You did not set up the servers as requested or installed the features asked for.	40	1
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Your report was of a good standard and contained most of the relevant sections. It flowed well with referencing being used and no spelling errors and included some of the relevant screenshots. Your presentation also was well produced.	10	7
