

Introduction to Research
BMHP5005
Student Name: Elizabeth Kokori
Student ID -1910041
Lecturer- Moura Mohamed

Viva

LITERATURE REVIEW FOCUS

- This literature review is focused on the physiotherapy benefits in rehabilitation of elderly stroke patient.
- This research is to know if the rehabilitation was effective, and how these rehab benefits have been measured within the elderly community,
- The aim of this research is to gather evidence that stroke patients benefit from rehabilitation with the output to promote their independent.
- Objectives of this research will be carried out based on existed facts and figures of previous researchers.

METHODS

- Secondary research was the methodology
- Key words – Benefits of rehabilitation in stroke elderly patients, Elderly physiotherapy, Physiotherapy for stroke, Rehabilitation program and Rehabilitation for stroke.
- Sources were from online / PubMed/ duckduckgo search engine google scholar and uwtsd library
- Over 60 elderly stroke patients were included criteria, while young adults was the excluded criteria.

FINDINGS & KEY THEMES

- Key findings or results of the literature reviewed.
 1. Evidence of physiotherapy rehabilitation benefits in elderly stroke patients Ernest {1990}.
 2. Any form of rehabilitation treatment improve patient status
 3. Age can slow immediate outcomes on elderly stroke patients Lalit{1993}
- Key themes identified.
 1. Benefits
 2. Survivor