Explain how to reference within a body of the text and a reference list:

- Books, journal articles, government legislation and websites; use examples for each type of reference.

Why do we reference?

It's important to cite sources you used in your research for several reasons:

- To show your reader you've done proper research by listing sources you used to get your information
- To be a responsible scholar by giving credit to other researchers and acknowledging their ideas
- To avoid plagiarism by quoting words and ideas used by other authors
- To allow your reader to track down the sources you used by citing them accurately in your paper by way of footnotes, a bibliography or reference list.
