

Hi All,

Here is the list of times for the tutorial groups for the next two weeks.

I have left some space at the end of each day if anyone has any questions, you might want to 'pop in' for a one to one.

The first hour we will all meet on line and I will go through a PowerPoint of my work. It will not take an hour but I have given myself time in case we have some issues with meeting up in such a large group.

Can you all be aware that this will be my first time on Teams! :) I am not very good at all with anything digital. I am sure I will make some mistakes along the way, which may be very frustrating for you all. I would be most grateful, as you are all now much more advanced than me with Teams, if you could give me a hand i.e. instruction if I get a bit lost. This is all about working as a team so you can have a go at giving me instructions!!

You can see by the timetable set for the tutorial slots that each group of six is given 1 hour. This gives everyone 10 minutes to talk about their work and ask questions in turn. If the time finishes early that's fine. At this stage I am looking forward to meeting you all and having an informal chat about how you are coping in general, how you feel the course is going for you and answering any questions you may have.

If anyone needs more time, we can talk at the end of the day.

For the next two weeks on Mondays, when you are not in Tutorials, you can work on your Reportage project in your own time and practice the skills you have learnt. If some of you feel you are a bit behind, this gives you time to catch up.

NOTE: Tonight, I will send out an invite to you all to join the Teams meeting which is to start at 10 am tomorrow. I will let the meeting running all day but, after the initial session, you are to re-join for your tutorials at the allotted times set out below – please mute your microphones and cameras at all other times, (unless you want to join in with the open sessions at the end of each day to ask questions). I will send out the Teams invite to your UNIVERSITY EMAIL CONTACT ADDRESS NOT your personal emails.
