Introduction In this poster it will show you the important of study skills during higher education

Critical thinking

According to university of Edinburgh (2023) critical thinking is a skill everyone at university will need to become Successful and that it will help us find our way through information at rich word.

BBC bitesize identifies that critical thinking and problem solving is a valuable skills to have as critical thinking can be used in many different situations in our day-to-day life's they also say that critical thinking includes questioning the information rather than just taking the information that you hear and read about.

University of Essex hints that critical thinking is a skill that all students should have for their assessments and in their research also many workplaces with like you to have this skill as it shows you can make clear judgments,

Note taking

Imperial collage London suggests that note taking is important as it make sure that you catch the main points and so you can listen to what being said properly.

As suggested by university of north Carolina taking valuable note is a main part of academic success in higher education furthermore it helps you concentrate and get a a better understanding on the main concepts it will also help you remember what you heard or seen.

University of south devon implies that good note taking in higher education is good practice as you learn lots of new information and you need to be responsible for taking down and receiving information when you need to, and it is learning activity as it will help you process and understand the information when being given to you.

Time management

University of Sheffield highlights that time management is one most key skills and difficult skills to learn and maintain.

Australian Christian collage emphasizes that it is important that students have effective time management as it allows them to get more things done in less time as they have their attention on what need to done and not wasting time on distraction like social media, it also help reduce stress for students.

Clark.I says Frequently, students that attend higher education can face challenging time from having bad time management although it may be hard to prevent life facing challenges, you can do a marvelous deal to avoid the difficulties that they can cause, and this can be done by prioritizing the right stuff and having great time management.

Conclusion

So, this summaries that it is important to have great study skills in higher education so you can avoid having to worry about anything and you can focus on the important thing first and not get over well with it all.
