A) but who is responsible for this war (τούτου τοῦ πολέμου) and this perplexity (ταύτης τῆς ἀπορίας)? ✓

B) The orators, I know that well, are responsible for this matter (τούτου τοῦ πράγματος). For the city is full of noise (θορύβου and shouting (βοῆς) because of both the war and the daring of the orators (τῶν ὀητόρων). For who does not know about their daring (τῆς τόλμης) (αὐτῶν)? ✓

A)but I don't think that the orators are responsible for these matters (τούτων τῶν πραγμάτων) at any rate, but they are the best of men (ἀνθρώπων). For always they fight on behalf of the people (τοῦ πλήθους) and the city (τῆς πόλεως) , as they say

B) Yes . but you are speaking false. For the crowd of these men (τούτων τῶν ἀνδρῶν) is bad and no one is worse than the orator (τοῦ ὀητορος). For the orators take hold of the assembly (τῆς ἐκκλησίας) and the lawcourt (τοῦ δικαστηρίου)
