PERSONAL PROFILE

A resilient and adaptable professional with a career spanning three decades in the logistics and creative sectors. Currently a student at UWTSD,

Focusing on the intersection of 90s Rave Culture and Standalone Music Technology. As a Sole Trader, I am developing a sustainable business model that utilizes the Numark Mixstream Pro+ to provide high-end entertainment and youth music workshops.

EDUCATION HISTORY

- University of Wales Trinity Saint David (UWTSD)
- Saint Jude's Comprehensive School
- GCSEs (8 Grades A-C) | 1989 – 1994: Included English, Mathematics, and Music.
- Awarded "Student of the Year" in Music for organizing the first school disco utilizing early twin-deck setups.

EMPLOYMENT & BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Founder & Lead Artist | Quinn's Old Skool Revival: January 2020 – Present (Sole Trader)

Successfully launched a specialist DJ brand focusing on the 90s Rave "Nostalgia Economy."

Tech Leadership: Migrated from traditional vinyl to a standalone digital format using the Numark Mixstream Pro+, reducing technical overhead and physical footprint.

Community Impact: Established the "PLUR Initiative," offering free mentoring to local school leavers interested in the music industry.

Operations Manager | Midland Logistics Ltd.

August 2005 – December 2019

Managed a team of 15 drivers and warehouse staff.

Oversaw a yearly budget of £500k, developing skills in resource management and health and safety (IOSH certified).

Assistant Event Promoter / Hardcore Underground Events

June 1996 – July 2005

Learned the foundations of the rave scene, assisting with venue scouting, flyering, and artist booking.

Developed a deep network within the UK dance music industry that still supports my current business.

TECHNICAL & VOLUNTEER SKILLS

Music Tech: Expert user of Engine DJ OS; specialized in live stem-mixing and cloud-based library management on standalone gear.

Financial Literacy: Proficient in Sole Trader tax returns and Cash Flow forecasting (learned via UWTSD).

Volunteering: Weekly volunteer at Birmingham Youth Hub, teaching basic mixing skills to "at-risk" teenagers.
