BOYA

you can listen to the Guqin, can you understand the quality of the Guqin?

WOODMAN

this Guqin is called the Yao, which is made by Fuxi and is made from the middle part of the best Chinese parasol tree. The tree must be three feet high and three feet tall, and the upper part is too clear, the lower part is too cloudy, only the middle part, the turbidity phase, and the weight. After that, the wood was placed in water for seventy two days. In a good day, this instrument was be made.

In the beginning, the instrument had five strings, and it was made of gold, wood, water, fire and earth, and it was in the palace, business, horn, sign and feather. Later, the king of zhou added a string, called the wen string, and the king of zhou added another string, called the wu string.

Therefore, this instrument is also known as the wenwu Giuqin.

The BOYA were satisfied, and the strings were tuned, sometimes strong and high, and sometimes smooth and fluent.

WOODMAN

good, I don't think I can do that,
I heard the sound of the sea and mountains.

BOYA

Could you tell me your name?

WOODMAN

Ziqi Zhong

BOYA

I know many people, but no one can ever know my music like you.

BOYA and WOODMAN burn incense and worship.

They become best brother.
