

Module Title: Psychology in Health and Social Care

Module Number: BMHP4003_BIRM

Component 1 – Poster (750 word equivalent) and Annotated bibliography (1250 words equivalent)

Before reading this guidance, you should consult a copy of the full assignment brief for Component1 which is available on Moodle in the 'Assignment Brief' folder.

Poster

Title	All submissions must use the title, “Understanding psychological development across the lifespan” Be creative in how you want to position and format this title, do not exceed font size 20. Please include your name and student number somewhere visible on your poster.
Introduction	This section should introduce your audience to the content of your poster, briefly stating what will be discussed and the context. Here you may also highlight key literature, theories or models that you will be discussing within your poster.
Psychological theories	Within your poster you must include information about - Erikson's theory of psychosocial development. You must also include another relevant theory. For example: - Piaget's theory of cognitive development. - Vygotsky's theory of social constructivism. - Adler's theory of inferiority - Freud's theory of psychosexual development. In your points, make clear comparisons between the two theories.
Practical activity ideas	Within your poster you must include at least one practical example of how staff can support older adults. Aim to link your choice of activity to the relevant theory.
Citations	You must accurately cite your sources in the relevant sections of your poster. Use Harvard referencing style to do this. All citations must correspond with sources listed in the bibliography.

Annotated Bibliography (1000 words)

Bibliography	All information sources should be listed in Harvard Style with a full reference for each.

	References should be organised in alphabetical order. You should have used a minimum of eight credible and reliable sources of published information.
Annotations	Underneath the full reference for the source, you should include a paragraph explaining: • what the source is about, • why the source is credible and reliable, • how you have used the source to help create the poster. You can include sources that you have read but have not cited within your poster as you may have read more than you were able to include.

Please watch the guidance video for more information about creating your poster and what a good example looks like. Your work must be submitted as one file, please see the guidance video for how this can be achieved, we recommend using either MS Word or MS PowerPoint.
