COULD YOU BE A BPS VOLUNTEER STUDENT AMBASSADOR?

DO YOU WANT TO REPRESENT THE BRITISH PSYCHOLOGICAL SOCIETY ON CAMPUS? IF YOU ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT PSYCHOLOGY, SUPPORTING YOUR FELLOW STUDENTS AND WANT TO LEARN NEW SKILLS ALONG THE WAY – YOU COULD BE A VOLUNTEER STUDENT AMBASSADOR. WE WOULD LOVE YOU TO JOIN US TO SUPPORT YOUR FELLOW PSYCHOLOGY STUDENT MEMBERS.

As a Volunteer Student Ambassador you can get involved with:

- Supporting your fellow students who are entering into psychology education and training;
- Be a correspondent between the BPS, the student committee and your university;
- Carrying out activities to engage your fellow psychology students!
- Gain experience in wider workplace opportunities, such as supporting the delivery of psychologically based education programmes, and beyond!

Volunteering as a Student Ambassador is very flexible. You can commit to set hours each week or join us on a more flexible basis – whatever suits you! Any time you can give helps support students who are entering into education and training. In return, we will give you all the training you need to be successful in the role.

All you need to do is put together a short video identifying how you would support the BPS using your skills to meet the general requirements for this role and send it to us...

Your video should be no longer than 5 minutes and can be recorded using any format and platform you prefer. You could use PowerPoint, a recording on a mobile device or tablet or as a Zoom/MS Teams recorded call. Please do not hesitate to contact us should you wish to discuss how to record your video.

What are you waiting for!?

If you require any special arrangements/adjustments to be made in relation to this task, please let us know. Wherever possible, we will make arrangements to accommodate your needs so that you can give of your best.
