

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
A fair research activity for this assessment, complete with a variety of useful links	20	15
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
This is all about demonstrating your skills with scripting and how you could make scripts have an elements of usefulness. What has been provided is somewhat basic and you should have really reviewed the lecturer notes as there is enough information present to identify suitable constructs and be able to write more "complex" and useful scripts (the internet is full of useful hints)	20	5
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
A fair discussion about the role of the OS (supporting images would have been useful), but the discussion is lacking variety - the OS has a lot of relevant functions that could have been discussed - a missed opportunity	10	6
4. Practical Application Skills
Assignment brief is clear - discussion on a set of relevant CLI commands (missing) and a set of scripts (done), problem here is lack complexity (as mentioned when the assessment brief was released). Maybe the question here is understanding the needs of the assessment brief and ensuring you were clear on what needs to be done - you could have asked questions about the assessment	40	10
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Report is well presented to a fair standard, but is easy to read/follow and there are a number of elements that are referenced, please focus on how to apply referencing within the body of the report. Issues around the presentation of a typical HE report have been discussed during the academic skills module (please reflect). Just be mindful of the assessment brief and its requirements - did you read it properly/clearly enough and/or ask questions in lectures	10	6
