

Geographical data showing the link between the locations of mines and the recorded number of respiratory disease in Wales

By Arjun Ubhee (2318472)

This map explores the sections of deprivation within the three categories: income, employment and Health. The map also shows hotspots for the respiratory admintance and deaths as well as the mine locations. All data was recorded or modified for the year, 2019

