

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
Overall some very good referencing used throughout the document. Range of literature is very good and covers most aspects of your document. More inclusion of current laws and legislation would have gained more marks. Inclusion of a bibliography is welcomed however make sure it is presented more professionally.	20	15
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
Demonstrated very good knowledge of data security concepts and you included some good practical examples of how these are used. Logical flow and clear explanations are present, but deeper analysis and reduction of redundancy are needed.	10	7
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
While you have discussed the positive sides of Data Security the text lacks critical evaluation and discussion of potential challenges or limitations associated with implementing the described roles and structures. Including these aspects would demonstrate higher-level thinking and a more comprehensive understanding.	25	15
4. Practical Application Skills
While you have demonstrated good practical skills with knowledge of Data Security areas and how to implement a solution. More technical details and integrated diagrams would enhance application skills	25	18
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Good quality document which included well presented diagrams. There were a few spelling mistakes and grammatically be careful you don't repeat yourself. This was evident on several occasions and you need to be more concise on occasions. The document had a good flow and was consistent throughout.	20	12
