RESEARCH-INFORMED LITERATURE

No sources used. You must defer to and cite material. 0 Second attempt (ECP): Excellent use of sources - far better. 8

KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING

You've missed the tone on this assignment generally. In quite a few places, you've answered questions with questions, or overt statements of uncertainty - inevitably, a large part of the intellectual overhead for this work is finding out answers to these questions. Worksheet 5 is omitted, which is worth a significant chunk of marks. I'm aware you spent a moderate amount of time working on this, but unfortunately this is not reflected in the submission. (3) Second attempt (ECP): Far better, though still a good amount of the work not quite complete. (11)

ANALYSIS

	No real evidence of analysis or synthesis. Some concluding remarks in places. (4) Second attempt (ECP): Again, far better this time - some synthesis and concluding marks in places.	11
---	--	-----------

PRACTICAL APPLICATION AND DEP.

	Worksheets 1-3 mostly complete, though the comments don't display a strong understanding of what's been done. If applying for ECP, I would strongly advise you to revise this work, to both complete the tasks and make your comments clear. (9) Second attempt (ECP): Again, a lot more work done, though not funny complete.	19
---	--	-----------

SKILLS FOR PROFESSIONAL PRAC.

	Reasonable spelling, punctuation and grammar - quite informal, however. Document presentation could be a little better - I don't think the approach of mixing comments with the worksheet resulted in a particularly clear report, as it is currently. (5) Second	8 attempt (ECP): Far better, much of the uncertainty removed, still well-written.
