

The quickest and easiest way to connect - use the CAT Tool

To connect to eduroam Wi-Fi on campus:

eduroam is available in all locations across campus. Search for available Wi-Fi networks on your device.

for students: userid@student.uwtsd.ac.uk for example 1234567@student.uwtsd.ac.uk)

Choose eduroam

Login with the following and your password is your university account password.

for staff: userid@uwtsd.ac.uk
for example (j.blogs@uwtd.ac.uk)

Once 'No CA certificate is required' is ticked the authentication options will change to what you see below. Enter and select the following information for each box:

Leave 'Anonymous identity' blank and remember to keep No CA certificate is required ticked!

Connecting your device.

Connect to Eduroam on a Windows computer.

Select the networks icon in the taskbar, usually at the bottom right of the screen next to the clock.

Select 'eduroam' from the list of Wi-Fi connections.

Click 'Connect'.

Username: Username – Enter your university details as above and your password.

Click 'OK'.

If you see a 'Windows Security Alert' window, make sure to click 'Connect' to accept the eduroam security certificate.

Connect to Eduroam on your Mac

Click the Wi-Fi icon in the menu bar.

If Wi-Fi is off, select 'Turn Wi-Fi on'.

Select 'eduroam' from the list.

Username: Username – Enter your university details as above and your password.

Click 'Join'.

Connect to Eduroam on your iPhone or iPad

Open the Settings app.

Tap 'Wi-Fi'.

Select 'eduroam' from the list.

Username: Username – Enter your university details as above and your password.

Tap 'Join'.

Connect to Eduroam on your Linux

Wi-Fi security – WPA & WPA2 Enterprise

Authentication – Protected EAP (PEAP)

Domain – uwtsd.ac.uk

Inner authentication – MSCHAPv2

Username – Enter your university details as above and your password.

Password – Your password for your University account