

- sorin grigore, student number: 2321908.

BASIC DIGITAL SAFETY

- Follow these steps to protect your devices and information from someone who tries to hack you, using malicious software trying to steal your identity.
- Double check online information : if you read something you are unsure of ,do your own research , to establish the facts the website to be reliable must have references to the original information.
- Protect your wireless router with a strong password, with a combination of letters, numbers, and symbols .
- Think twice even if you recognize who sent . Keeping ,personal information private , Protect yourself from phishing attempts!
- Create and use strong passwords and do not share them with anyone. Also,don't reuse passwords ; use a different password for each site.
- Use your devices; screen lock feature to prevent anyone from calling, texting, or accessing your personal information without your permission.
- Keep software (web browser) and operating systems updated,check that look and feel reliable.

• Antivirus Protection.

- It is important to have a good quality antivirus and keep it updated to stay ahead of cyber threats.

• Protect your device

<https://check.getsafeonline.org/reference:support.microsoft.com>