10a. If the attendee is highlighted as 'exceptional' within the Performance Centre environment, what could potentially be the next step for her?:

- I feel the pathway is limited and does not really suit the purpose of transition to a higher level. Whilst my daughter enjoys it and skills are provided, I do not feel there is a next step beyond this for 95% of the people who attended. E.g. the same people sent for trials 2 years in a row with nobody else afforded the opportunity. I think you have to accept it for what it is - additional fitness training.
