Comments:

- Research & Analysis - No-artists research and analysis evident.
- Development/Experimentation with Media - The media used is not at all clear and is not indicated. Neither print or digital is evident in your final pieces and original artworks are not available to look at.
 Artbook -
 Crayons –some pencil crayon work
 Pastels -
 Watercolour –watercolour evident but so minimal it's irrelevant
 Oil –You did the oil painting workshop but have not submitted the work it was left on the wall.
 Acrylic –One glazed piece, and dry brush experiment.
 Own Choice -
 Digital –two digital pieces. Got to grips with the software during the digital workshops. Particularly successful final outcome.
 Print –Screen print no etching
 Very little evidence of experimentation with media overall
- Technical skill- The final images are interesting in their naiveté, but not sure if this is designed or as a result of lack of time and poor time management. We need to talk about this

4. Subject Knowledge- not evident
5. Presentation & Communication- Need to learn to present work more professionally this relates to professional practice. You need to think how you would present work to a client in folder sleeves with clear annotation and a cohesive display that informs the reader. The final print out is well printed and clear.
6. Personal Learning & Development- I know you have had difficulties this year and it takes time to settle down and become more responsible for your working practice. But this definitely needs addressing in your next module along with professional practice.
7. Professional practice-Need to address time management. This is really important. You need help and encouragement with this, make sure you keep in touch and have regular tutorials to help with organizational skills.

These marks and comments are provided to give feedback on your performance and level of achievement for the assessed module component.

They are subject to ratification at the Examination Board and are for guidance only until they are confirmed.

1. Research & Analysis Systematic exploration and selection of sources; effective interpretation and evaluation of findings.	Limited or no material presented with limited or no evidence of critical enquiry.	Material presented indicates a basic degree of insight and is of limited relevance to the task.	Material presented is adequate and relevant demonstrating the application of standard research techniques.	Material presented shows a good range of sources, is well organised and interpreted in a manner relevant to the task.	Connections have been made between sources and qualitative judgements have been made in the interpretation of these findings.	Research is extensive, well documented and critically evaluated with new personal judgements made and applied.	Research and exploration is impressive both in extent and depth and the level of interpretation and critical insight is highly advanced.
2. Development Formulation of innovative and effective concepts through appropriate application of problem solving, creative experimentation and testing methods.	Limited or no engagement with the practical and creative processes of ideation.	Basic proposals have been made but limited in scope and lacking in considered and focused development processes.	Proposals are adequate and are delivered within a familiar and well established framework of methods.	Proposed concepts are formulated with a good degree of detail through the use of a variety of systematic and exploratory methods.	Concepts display innovative ideas within established territories, which are well resolved through sound practical and creative processes.	Proposals respond effectively to unfamiliar or new conceptual territories and expand perceptions of process and/or product.	Proposals both challenge and extend the conceptual territory and set new benchmarks for innovation and effectiveness within the field.
