

PETER MATTHEWS

A talk to be given to the Fine
Art students on Monday 20th at 9.30am in lecture theatre 2

Please attend

Peter Matthews is an English artist who works in solitude in the landscape, most often along the littoral reaches of the coast. He is currently undertaking the Changing Coasts Creativity Fellowship at Swansea University. His works have been shown internationally since graduating from the Nottingham Trent University.