

University of Wales
Trinity Saint David
LONDON

Careers Fair

Wed, 30 March 2022

9:30am – 4:00pm

Winchester House,
London Campus

Please scan the QR code to register for this face-to-face event:

Event Schedule

09:30am-11:30am

Generic Workshops: Available to all students

Room: WH3

How to Present Yourself Compellingly on Your CV and a Job Application Form

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- Skills employers are looking for
- Person specification and job description analysis
- Identify your own skills
- How to create a powerful CV

Facilitator:
Zack Darwood

Zack is currently employed in a senior role within learning and development in a local authority and is responsible for a wider work force including business and Administration. He writes policies, procedures, job descriptions and person specification. Zack is a Workforce Development lead. He is responsible for TNA's commissioning delivering, quality assurance and meeting the varied professional needs of the workforce.

Room: WH4

Overcoming Barriers and Achieving Your Goals

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- Overcome barriers
- Discovering yourself and your passion
- How to create goals and keep focus to achieve them

Facilitator:
Simon Gledhill

Current social worker, adopter, foster carer and independent Vice Chair for foster care panel. Simon served as a Police Officer for 7 years, progressing to become the force's youngest Sergeant. Following encounters with families in crisis, he developed a passion for children in care, this led to Simon re-training as a Social Worker and becoming a Foster Carer. Simon has held a range of roles within social care sector, primarily as an independent Social Worker, as Fostering Panel Chair. He and his wife Laura specialise in the long-term care of 'hard to place' children. Alongside their two birth children, they care for two foster children and one adopted child.

All workshops will be delivered by professionals working in the industry.
The workshops will be interactive with case studies and role-plays.

Room: WH5

Valuing Yourself, Your Culture and Finding Your Passion

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- How to overcome discrimination and bullying
- Value yourself and your culture
- Find your passion
- Create goals

Facilitator:
Elizabeth Eyoma

Elizabeth works with vulnerable young people.
Elizabeth sits on a Race Equality Network Board. She is a specialist worker and training facilitator in a multi-disciplinary educational team. Elizabeth has been practising for over 20 years. Elizabeth is also a carer.

Room: WH8

Succeeding at Job Interviews

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- Different types of interviews
- Interview techniques e.g., STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) technique

Facilitator:
Carline Benoit

Carline is the Director of AT & S training consultancy.
Carline has experience in recruitment and placements for trainees.
She is an independent reviewing officer, complaints officer and multi-agency trainer.
Qualified Social Worker
Practise Educator.
Background in fostering adoption within children social care and voluntary organisation.

11:30am-1:30pm

Careers Fair (Employers)

An opportunity to meet employers and volunteering organisations to find out about their recruitment processes and opportunities available for paid and volunteering work with their companies.

 marshall info tech

angela mortimer

Reed

 mind
Lambeth and Southwark

CIPD

zen EDUCATE

HAYS Recruiting experts worldwide

...and more!

2:00pm-4:00pm

Programme-related Workshops

Targeted towards

Certificate of Higher Education Skills for the Workplace students

Improving Your Employability Skills: How to Present Yourself to Employers

Room:
WH3

Facilitator:
Zack Darwood

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- Explore the challenges and processes of securing employment.
- Skills employers are looking for
- Identify your own skills
- Tips for a powerful CV and a successful job interview

Zack is currently employed in a senior role within learning and development in a local authority and is responsible for a wider work force including business and Administration. He writes policies, procedures, job descriptions and person specification.

Zack is a Workforce Development lead. He is responsible for TNA's commissioning delivering, quality assurance and meeting the varied professional needs of the workforce.

Zack will be joined by Ben Hessenthaler (Admissions) and Md Kalam (BA Leadership & Management Skills for the Workplace Programme Manager) to talk about progression to Level 5.

Targeted towards

Certificate of Higher Education Skills for the Workplace (Health & Social Care) students

Career prospects for Health and Social Care Practitioners in the Post-Covid-19 Era

Room:
WH4

Facilitator:
Carline Benoit

Topics:

- Facilitator professional journey
- Careers available in Health and Social Care
- Skills needed for the jobs
- Professional Development
(Case study and role play)

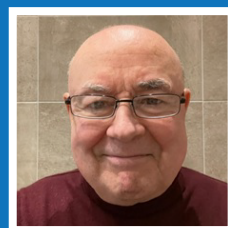

Qualified Social Worker Practise Educator. Background in fostering adoption within children social care and voluntary organisation. Independent panel member. Sexual exploitation, child protection and safeguarding lead. Independent reviewing officer, complaints officer and multi-agency trainer. Director of AT & S training consultancy.

Carline will be joined by Ben Hessenthaler (Admissions) and Dr Eleni Koutsogeorgou (BSc Health & Social Care, Programme Manager) to talk about progression to Level 5.

Targeted towards

BSc Health & Social Care students

Working With and Supporting Vulnerable Groups

Room:
WH7

Facilitator:
Jim Meehan

Topics:

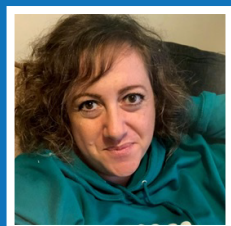

- Facilitator professional journey
- Career options
- Skills needed and routes to working with vulnerable groups
- Vulnerable adults
- Working with people with substance misuse issues and mental health

Jim works with vulnerable adults, those with substance misuse, and mental health issues. He is specialist practitioner in a multi-disciplinary team. He is accredited by the NSPCC to train multidisciplinary staff on working with parental neglect. Jim has been practising for over 30 years.

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management,
MBA and DBA students

How to be a Successful Leader

Room:
WH5

Facilitator:
Gabriella Russo

Topics:

- Facilitator professional journey
- Skills needed to become a successful leader
- How to motivate people around you
- Flexibly adapt your leadership style
- Effectively promote change in your organisation

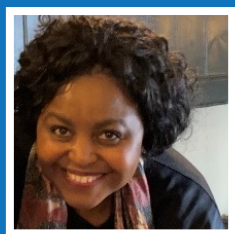

Gabriella has 5 years' experience as a manager at the UK Children Charity (NSPCC) and is a subject expert and works closely with educational settings both in the UK and abroad.

Gabriella worked in the field of anti-human trafficking before spending. She is now an independent safeguarding trainer. She delivers training to a multi-agency audience, charities and businesses on a variety of safeguarding issues, including on the digital world – the myths, risks, and how to keep children and vulnerable people safe. Gabriella has been practising for over 25 years.

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management,
MBA and DBA students

Entrepreneurship - How to Become Your Own Boss

Room:
WH8

Facilitator:
Hannah Heil

Topics:

- Facilitator professional journey
- Facilitator company journey
- Advantages and challenges of becoming your own boss
e.g., financial, family, selling your product/service commitments.
- Skills needed to open your own business
- Procedures to open your business in the UK
- Practical activities using the CANVAS business model to help you to understand the process of opening your own business

Hannah Heil is the founder and director of B2B company, Resonance Dynamics Ltd which she founded in April 2018.

She is passionate about applying social sciences principles and systems thinking to construct and conduct market research and offer statistically sound data analytics to assist leaders of corporates and other large organisations to deliver clarity in corporate strategies.

Hannah is energised by positive contributions to efforts of boards of directors in the execution of the duty of building and protecting organisational reputation. She is a mother of three who are all university students in the UK, Germany and Austria. Hannah spent her early years honing skills in marketing, corporate governance as an executive director and certified non-executive director of companies.

Hannah will also be joined live via Teams by the University's enterprise team. For more information about the team, please go to: <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/for-business/enterprise/>

Targeted towards

BSc Cloud Computing students

Working in the IT Industry

Room:
WH2

Facilitator:
Simon Hind

Topics:

- Facilitator professional journey
- Skills needed for a role in the IT industry
- Tips and tricks for IT roles, including CVs and job interview.
- Opportunities for students to gain employment with the university in the IT department

The senior Service Desk Engineer from UWTSD. Simon has been working for UWTSD for over 7 years. Simon will be joined by Cat Smith, (Chief Operations Officer) and Jim Ottaway (Technical Operations Manager) from Community Tech Aid. They will talk about the various projects that they are currently working on to help close the digital divide by providing technology and skills to communities, while recycling, reusing and repairing waste IT equipment, mobile phone etc.

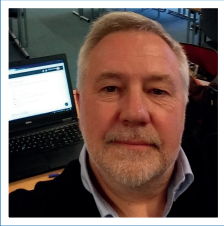

They also will be talking about the opportunities available to students and the free training available.

<https://www.communitytechaid.org.uk/>

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

Business Coaching Essentials

Room:
WH9

Facilitator:
Dr Graham Wilson

Topics:

- Business Coaching skills
- Dos and don't's of business coaching
- Exploring exemplars of coaching (entrepreneurs, corporate leaders, inspirational problem solvers)

At university, Graham studied behavioural science which led to an initial career in organisation development and human resources consulting with blue-chips including Exxon, Coopers & Lybrand and Maersk.

Frustrated when people resisted change, Graham trained as a counsellor and coach, and soon discovered that this very different approach provoked far better responses. He went on to become Group HR Director for Sodexo UK and a Joint Coordinator of Chaplaincy Services in the defence sector.

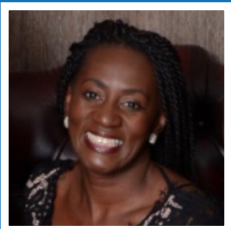

Along the way, he has written a few management textbooks, worked extensively in India, and occasionally in the UAE, Singapore and Nigeria.

For the last 20 years, he has had a private business and leadership coaching practice, and since 2013, he has been delivering several coaching-related courses as a part-time tutor in psychology and counselling for the University of Oxford.

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

Transferable Skills for Teaching

Room:
WHCL

Facilitator:
Elizabeth Eyoma

Topics:

- Facilitator Professional journey
- Career options in education
- The knowledge, skills, and qualifications needed and various routes to the roles.

Elizabeth has been working in education for over 20 years. She has had various roles in the education sector.

Elizabeth is a specialist worker and training facilitator in a multi-disciplinary educational team. Elizabeth is also a carer.

Students who attended the workshops can collect a participation certificate from the reception.