

PDP Presentation hints and tips

Your starting point for your PDP presentation should revolve around three questions, as outlined in the Indicative Content in the Module Assignment Brief on MOODLE.

Where am I?

You might start this section with statements such as:

“When I started the course I wanted to be an actor, but now.....and after considering.....I know want to go into.....”

“At the beginning of this year I thought I wanted to enter the Creative Industries..... but now.....and after considering.....I know want to go into.....”

“I’ve always known I’ve wanted to be an actor

You will find evidence, information etc in your portfolio around your SWOT analysis, your work on modules, your professional masterclasses etc.

Where do I want to be?

You will find evidence, information etc in your portfolio around your SWOT analysis, your work on modules, your professional masterclasses and how you have been working towards your goals by strengthening your weaknesses, engaging with external practitioners, researching your area of expertise/interest conducting yourself in a professional manner etc.

How do I get there?

You will find evidence, information etc in your portfolio around your SWOT analysis, your work on modules, your professional masterclasses etc. What steps have you been taking to achieve your goals? Are you ready to enter your chosen profession? What do you need to do short term/mid term/long term and how will you keep yourself on track?

Remember - the Presentation needs to be 10 mins

Ensure you have read the marking criteria in the Module Assignment Brief in order to keep you focused.
