Subject: IIP

To who it may concern,

In December 2016 Jackie was tasked with Project Managing the 2017 Investors In People (IIP) Accreditation, however, since our last accreditation IIP had re-designed the programme and also increased the cost by around £2,500, as a small business this is a significant cost.

Jackie talked me through the benefits of the pushing forward with the accreditation, specifically around the benefits in recruiting and retaining staff and also living up to our Premier Values, which were now more in line with IIP than they had ever been before:

People First
Leading Safety
Solution Focused

I'm glad to say that I am pleased Jackie was able to demonstrate the benefits, see past the challenges and despite my initial objections and reservations, we now have a Gold Accreditation.

Best Regards

Steve
