

Current Debates In Psychology: 24-hour Essay

2016/17 Essay Questions

Essay 1: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, the issues related to eyewitness testimony use in criminal court cases.

Essay 2: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, the impact of 'perfect bodies' presented in media upon people's self-esteem.

Essay 3: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, whether the increase in automation in society means we are less capable of carrying out routine tasks.

Essay 4: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, whether negative campaigns work in politics.

Essay 5: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, whether students should be made to learn both English and Welsh in school.

Essay 6: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples whether, with modern technology being so ubiquitous in society, there is a need to store information in our mind.

Essay 7: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, whether those who were born after 1985 can be considered to be 'digital natives' whilst those born before are 'digital immigrants'.

Essay 8: Critically discuss, citing empirical psychological research and giving real-world examples, why people may feel negative towards immigrants to the UK.