

I do a bit of buying and selling in my spare time to make extra money for my family as times are very hard.

I am not a criminal and I only buy small things I can sell easily at a Car boot Sale.

I always buy in good faith and never think that I am dishonest.

I am a trustworthy, hardworking person and have never knowingly bought stolen goods to sell.

I am very upset that my character has been questioned and I will help the police as much as I can.