

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
General Comments
You worked well on the practical aspects of the brief and did well on the routing protocol section, but you were let down by the observation section which was totally missing and was the conclusion part to the assignment.	100	51
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
In your report you have used a range of references but not include any critical analysis of this, or summaries of the articles referenced.	20	10
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
In your report you have used a range of references but not include any critical analysis of this, this extends to the observations as well. Your report was well written though.	15	6
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
For this section you were meant to analyse the techniques and technologies you were using for the practical. This however was not what you were doing. Your statement were brief and just a statement of fact.	15
4. Practical Application Skills
For this section you successfully created the domain and child domain. This was followed by creating users but not the list provided this extended to the IIS server not being installed but you did install DHCP just not used it.	40	26
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Your report was of a good standard and contained all the relevant sections. It flowed well with referencing being and no spelling errors and included the relevant screenshots. Your presentation also was well produced.	10	9
