

Yoooo! Bro, how's it goin? Listen, I have another project that I thought you might be interested in and issa BIG one :)) I got in touch with a couple of other rappers and we want to put together a track in which each one of us have a 30-40 seconds verse part. I spoke to Bega and he said that he'd help me record everything, but I wanted to see if you've got time and would be interested in preparing a hardcore instrumental for us or nah. Let me know and let's talk on the phone a bit when you're free

As an idea, check out some Skepta songs and also have a look at some JME.. that's kinda the inspiration for this thing
